

Cantor's Corner

On June 14, Marcy and I began our journey to Israel to live for 7 weeks. It is hard to believe that time is moving so rapidly. The rhythm of life in Israel is the same and different from home. Living in a two-bedroom apartment in the center of Jerusalem, a very modern city, reminds me of Orange County. It is a city under construction where people walk, drive, and take public transport everywhere. Sunday through Friday, the rhythm is the same. On Friday afternoon, change occurs. The pulse slows, the people are no longer in the streets, most or all shops are closed, and public transport stops for Shabbat. There are few taxis and emergency services available if necessary.

During our first Friday in Jerusalem, we attended services at the Conservative Yeshiva where we are currently studying and learning how to speak Hebrew, Sunday through Thursday. Many come from around the world to study here and many courses are offered. After services on Friday night, I was asked to daven on Saturday morning and I was privileged to lead Pseukei D'Zimra, our morning introductory prayers. What a thrill to be able to travel half way around the world to our Jewish homeland, be welcomed by many who did not know Marcy or me, and lead services for other Conservative Jews. Lo and behold, they use many of the same tunes we use!

On Saturday, we realized that the city had come to an almost complete halt. This was something I was not prepared for, but ended up enjoying tremendously. There were no shopping opportunities, minimal transport options, and all restaurants in our neighborhood were closed. For both of us coming from working full time and many other obligations, this "shutdown" was a welcome change. It was a time to reflect, a time to slow down, a time to get reacquainted, and time to take a "Shabbos Schluff" (nap). I encourage you all to try this type of Sabbath sometime right at home.

Marcy and I have been walking at least 10,000 steps each day (except for Shabbat) and exploring Jerusalem by foot during the first week. We have been to the Old City, the Windmill of Moses Montefiore, Ben Yehuda Street (we live near there), Mamila Mall (built just 12 years ago across from the old city), The Artists Colony, The King David Hotel, The Shuk, the Mayanot Yeshiva and many side streets just to get started.

There is much more to see and do here and I will report to you

Adon Olam, Master of the Universe, as a we prepare for the coming remembrance of the destruction of the 2nd Temple in July and Tisha B'Av in August, may we reflect as a Jewish people collectively, and as individuals on how that with all that goes on in the world, Israel remains strong, vibrant, and healthy. There are many marvels here yet to be shown. We as Jews continue to strive towards new opportunities to make this world a better place to live!

We look forward to having our CBS contingent join us on July 25 in Tel Aviv!

It is "cool" to study Torah! Come to our Torah study session on July 16 and August 20 at 9 AM, led by our own Joan Zak! "Be there or be square!" Our group is growing... be part of the discussion! See you in August!

CBS Religious School Book Fair Nets Synagogue new items!

Because of all YOU who supported our Religious School Book Fair, the teachers were able to select items for our classrooms that will enhance our school. Many thanks to Jackie Ramsdell for all her efforts in coordinating this Book Fair.

A Message from the President

It's the Season of B'nai Mitzvahs. The past 2 months have been one event after another. These events are the culmination of hours that turn into weeks and into months. The students practice all year to get to their scheduled date on the calendar .

The weeks prior to the event are crammed with last minute fine tuning for the that special ending of a Torah reading or the speech given by the B'nai student.

We just witnessed the adult Bat Mitzvah of Renee Tieszen, and students becoming a Bat Mitzvah of Lindsay Pineiros and Natalie Halpern. Each did a beautiful service, some having more English, some having additional Hebrew to read, yet each one was unique as they delivered their Torah portion. Like the Cantor Bruce Shapiro says, the Torah is not an easy document to read. Without vowels and punctuation, reading the Torah takes hours and hours of practice to make reading it perfect.

Many have had the opportunity to get to know Sandy Kaye. It seems that Sandy is the go-to person who is the B'nai Mitzvah teacher for many of our CBS students. She trains many of our students the art of getting ready for this major event in their lives.

Just so everyone knows, Sandy donates the brass leaf for our Tree of Life located in the lobby of the synagogue. It's her gift to the student after their achievement of this beautiful event. On the leaf is the student's name, the event of Bar or Bat Mitzvah and the date. Take a look at the Tree of Life...it's a wonderful way to acknowledge a mitzvah in someone's life.

Talk about a mitzvah, with the passing of good friend just one year ago, Marci Rouman took the helm in training 2 children nearing their Bar & Bat Mitzvah. The unique circumstances that surround this mitzvah is that these students live in San Diego. Their grandfather, Jeff Schwimmer, started their Hebrew training in anticipation for a B'nai Mitzvah. However just a couple months of teaching these kids Hebrew, the unexpected happened...Jeff passed away. Their grandmother of the children wanted to continue the dream what Jeff started. Marci offered to be their tutor and make this happen. She set up the kids on Skype, made monthly visits to San Diego, got them books and dug in for the training. Jessica Rouman and Cantor Shapiro assisted in making recordings of blessings, Torah readings, Haftarah, etc. which helped the kids move forward to their B'nai Mitzvah.

Then we enlisted the support of others synagogue members to make a Shabbat service complete. Dave Severson assisted as the leader of the Shabbat morning service, Jessica Rouman assisted with the service as well. Also on the bima was Renee Miller as she teamed up with Jessica for a duet to sing Ashrey. Noemi Schulman was there coordinated the honors. Joan Zak announced the honors for the Aliyahs and Torah readings. Sam Miller helped as the Gabbi at the bima. David Schulman and Dennis Brooks took photos prior to the service and the reception. Joyce Severson helped set up the room for the service. And I helped too with a handmade Torah holder, prepared the B'Nai Mitzvah booklets and the many rides to San Diego.

The B'nai Mitzvah took place in San Diego. These students shined in front of family and friends. Seems everyone had a part in the end product, now that's a mitzvah that we can all be very proud we participated. Yasher Koach to the team!

Bruce Rouman

Ways & Means

I must be on a roll!!! It has become painfully clear to me that I am definitely NOT the best Texas Hold 'em player around!

Yet, being the big winner of our second Thursday of the month "Brotherhood Poker" night has given me hope that I actually stand a chance of doing well in our Annual Texas Hold em' Tournament.

As they say, " If I can win, at my skill level, Anybody can win!" Seriously folks! Our Texas Hold 'em Tournament is scheduled on Saturday, November 5th at 7:00 PM at CBS. Same place as last year, Same FREE EVERYTHING and same admission.

Ticket sales will start in late August. If you need any more info, just call me at 951-277-0770-home or 951-675-0300-mobile.

For those who attended in past years, I don't have to tell you, Win or Not, everyone has a great time.

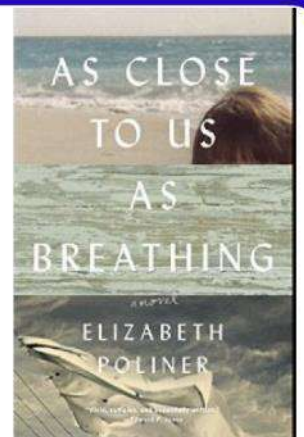

Thanks for listening, Dennis I.

We use 2 challahs for Friday Shabbat Evening. For orders contact Mark Koren 951-204-0635.

Upcoming Onegs

Hosting an Oneg is a way for members to share their happiness, to honor/remember a loved one, or merely do a Mitzvah. If you wish to host an Oneg, simply contact Gail Koren at (951) 688-1709 or (951) 204-4757.

When shopping, look for dairy items with a Kosher symbol, as our synagogue kitchen must remain Kosher.

Should the synagogue not have a host, then we will serve Challah and wine – with the traditional blessings.

By making a donation of $125 to Congregation Beth Shalom, we will shop for you.

We appreciate your help for set-up and clean-up, if you are physically able.

Thank You for your kind participation.

WHY Sponsor an Oneg Shabbat

In Ma*gein A*vot (You Shield Our Ancestors), the line with "oneg" translates to "sated with pleasure". What better way to get to know other Congregants than by "breaking challah" together? After an uplifting musical service, we adjourn to "Happy Hour"!

Every Member of our congregation is a welcoming tool of Membership where everyone benefits.
