

Cantor's Corner

Cantor Bruce Shapiro

We have a very unique opportunity to come together as a community on April 7, which happens to be the last day of Passover on Shabbat at 10 AM. Recently, I heard that many are not drawn to services on Friday and or Saturday, because they “do not understand what they are saying” or that “they know the order of the prayers, so they don’t need to come.”

My answer to this is, if only I could convince the grandparents to come, who would then draw their children to come, and in turn, their children and grandchildren. How do I help congregants understand the liturgy and make services more interesting and relevant to them and in turn their children? These are age old questions albeit tough questions and tough comments but very important ones.

As we read in the Book of Exodus about Moses’ trials with Pharaoh, it was very clear that Pharaoh “did not know this Hebrew God, God of the Israelites.” Moses, through the various plagues, showed Pharaoh the strength and prowess of his God. You would think that since God showed power over Pharaoh and his people, that the people would just automatically be drawn to this wonder (you know, always go with a winner?). Apparently, this is not how it worked. After leaving Egypt, the people complained, did not want to participate in the laws and rules that were set forth, and wanted to go down some other path. What they had forgotten is that their family, there friends, and their God was right there all the time, just waiting for them to return.

It is apparent to me that although I like praying in synagogue in community with other Jews, this is not what everyone else likes or feels comfortable doing. The old “Life” commercial, “Be like Mike”, referring to the Basketball Superstar Michael Jordan shows us that we are not all alike. We are individuals. We have Free Choice to do what we want. But, when it affects the community and perhaps the future of the Jewish people, shouldn't we take that into consideration? What about the memories that going to Shul provides? Services, dinners after, and outside events are all part of what makes memories of our life together as a community.

We all make time for the activities we love to do, that are not synagogue related, don't we? Isn't it also important to make time to share our Jewish selves with our community and to take time to enjoy Shabbat as well as other holidays together? Yes, there are many competing events in Southern California, but it is important to make time to revel in the light of Shabbat!

Adon Olam, Master of the Universe as we complete our Passover holiday, may we shed our excuses, hold truths near, live to our potential, and share our passion with others. Pesach is a time of remembering where we came from and where we are going. Let's individually and together make this a time of renewed and positive growth!

A Message from the President

Well another Legacy Luncheon is now history. This year our honorees took center stage to accept our token of appreciation for being honored by our synagogue. My Special thanks to Renee Miller who again chaired this event and Gail Koren for taking on a new role as data entry coordinator. Yasher Koach to the team! ... we achieved our goal for this fundraiser .

And I need to say thanks to our photography team of Dennis Brooks, Mark Koren & Dave Schulman. You'll see these photos on the monitor in the CBS A1 lobby. If there are photos anyone would like, please let me know.

Though this is our April issue, we traditionally prepare and have the newsletter out early. Our Community Passover Seder, March 31, will be led by Cantor Bruce Shapiro. We plan to have lots of traditional songs, engaging attendees to participate and join in the CBS fun!

Moving on...Joan Jacobs and Bobby Spiegel have taken on the lead as co-chairs for our synagogue's 50th Anniversary Event! Anniversary parties are usually a formal stuffy meal at a country club, but ours will be a bit different. The summer evening outdoors should be a nice change as ideas are flowing in for a fun event or all ages. If you would like to be part of the committee, contact Joan or Bobby - they need your help. Please save the date. It's Saturday Aug 4, at 6PM.

We're also ramping up for the High Holy Day schedule and planning for these services. We need English readers, Hebrew readers, Gabbiam, Hagbahs, Torah Holders, Ark Openers, Ushers, etc. Getting our volunteers early makes the holiday services that much smoother and without a hitch. If you enjoy helping out with part the High Holy Days Services, contact Jackie Williams.

Lastly – our CBS Band that were highlighted at our Shabbat Across America on March 9th will make additional appearances – so please join us for these fun musical nights.

Pre-Planning Final Arrangements

Nobody wants talk about it, but as the saying goes, you cannot escape death or taxes. Now that tax season is over, it is time confront the other inevitability.

One of the most generous things you can do is pre-plan the arrangements, you want, at your death. Planning an advance can spare your loved ones the anguish of making difficult decisions while in a state of grief.

Many of the necessary decisions have significant financial impacts. These should not be made at time of emotional stress, or with time constraints.

Also, to assure your personal wishes are fulfilled, most likely your family will only know what they are, if you formalize them, and leave the details for them to fulfill. Otherwise, you cannot be sure that your wishes will be met.

In order to help in better understanding the process, Congregation Beth Shalom of Corona is hosting an informational meeting, for members, and the community, on April 25, 2018. The meeting will be held, at our sanctuary, located at 500 Harrington Street, Suite A1, Corona, CA 92880, at 7:30 P.M. If you have any questions, please contact Saul Shulman at 951-277-4027.

Presentations will be made by staff of Thomas-Miller Mortuary, Robert Stone, Attorney-at Law and CBS Staff.

After the presentations, there will be time to answer the many questions, you will have.

There is probably no better gift you can give your family than to pre-plan your end of life wishes.

Trevor Noah, one of the comedy world's fastest-rising stars and host of The Daily Show, tells his wild coming-of-age story during the twilight of apartheid in South Africa and the tumultuous days of freedom that followed. In this Audible Studios production, Noah provides something deeper than traditional memoirists: powerfully funny observations about how farcical political and social systems play out in our lives.

"Nelson Mandela once said, 'If you talk to a man in a language he understands, that goes to his head. If you talk to him in his language, that goes to his heart.' He was so right. When you make the effort to speak someone else's language, even if it's just basic phrases here and there, you are saying to them, 'I understand that you have a culture and identity that exists beyond me. I see you as a human being.'" (Trevor Noah)

Attuned to the power of language at a young age - as a means of acceptance and influence in a country divided, then subdivided, into groups at odds with one another - Noah's raw, personal journey becomes something extraordinary in audio: a true testament to the power of storytelling. With brutal honesty and piercing wit, he forgoes an ordinary reading and, instead, delivers something more intimate, sharing his story with the openness and candor of a close friend. His chameleon-like ability to mimic accents and dialects, to shift effortlessly between languages including English, Xhosa, and Zulu, and to embody characters throughout his childhood - his mother, his gran, his schoolmates, first crushes and infatuations - brings each memory to life in vivid detail. Hearing him directly, you're reminded of the gift inherent in telling one's story and having it heard; of connecting with another, and seeing them as a human being.

The stories Noah tells are by turns hilarious, bizarre, tender, dark, and poignant - subsisting on caterpillars during months of extreme poverty, making comically pitiful attempts at teenage romance in a color-obsessed world, thrown into jail as the hapless fall guy for a crime he didn't commit, thrown by his mother from a speeding car driven by murderous gangsters, and more.

No date or meeting location has been set for April meeting but this book is well worth the read.
 Contact David Severson 714-365-2131 after April 1st for date, time and location of next meeting.

Education

During Religious School, the students have many hands on projects that have proven to be tremendous educational components.

Thank you to our teachers for doing an incredible job and to our parents for supporting our educational efforts.

Many of you joined our congregation last year when we attended the Israeli Faire in Los Angeles. We all had an amazing time. There was something for everyone who attended. Our students had so much fun doing the arts and crafts. Both adults and youth enjoyed the festive Israeli music. The food was great as well. There was good shopping also. The faire is rolling around once again on May 6. I hope some of you will join us. Feel free to contact me for additional information. Also feel free to view the website.

Ritual

April 6 is our Family Night Shabbat service at 6:30. April 7 is a Shabbat morning service with Yizkor for Pesach at 10:00AM. The Cantor will also be at the synagogue for services on April 13 and 14, but he will be out of town on the third Shabbat in April so there will be no Saturday morning service on April 21. The Confirmation class will be leading services on April 20.

Our second night Community Seder will be on March 31, and will be handled by Shirli Driz and her team. They have a fabulous meal planned. We thank you. Also thank you to Wendy Izenman and Gail and Mark Koren for making sure the synagogue is clean and ready for Pesach. A big thank you to Dennis Itzkowitz for getting the kosher chicken donated and donating some of it himself for the Seder.

ISRAEL 2019

Dear Friends:

What a pleasure it is to present to you the itinerary and pricing for our upcoming trip to Israel from June 11-20, 2019!

This trip is a multi-faith trip where we will experience Christian, Jewish, Muslim, and Bedouin history and ideology. Although the itinerary is jam-packed it allows additional free time to explore and shop.

The tour company will be asking for a $500 deposit (of which $ 300 will be non-refundable) per person in June of 2018 to ensure we have enough interest to make the trip happen and to keep the cost at the rates listed below. (We cannot do it with less than 20 people as the costs would be much higher). The trip is open to anyone you know who would be interested in sharing this amazing opportunity.

The cost for the trip is as follows:

Group of 20 $3118 plus $104 for tips
Group of 30 $2925 plus $104 for tips

(Tips will be collected prior to departure)

June of 2019 is coming fast so make your commitment to come to Israel and enjoy this trip of a lifetime!

Airfare and some meals are on your own.

Thank you and we look forward to sharing Israel with all of you in June of 2019!

The 12th Annual Legacy Luncheon – “Honoring Contributions Toward a Better Community”

The Legacy Luncheon, now “twelve years strong” was another resounding success this year. We honored an amazing group of people beginning with our Legacy Award recipients, Cantor Bruce and Marcy Shapiro and Harry and Hilda Eisen (of blessed memory); each having shown tremendous dedication and involvement in and to Congregation Beth Shalom as well as the greater Corona community. Kevin Button, a Corona-Norco educator received the Shomer Tzedek (Guardian of Righteousness) award and Lucas Oil, a nationally recognized business headquartered in Corona received the Shatuf Tzedek (Business Partner Award). What made this Legacy Luncheon so special was that 2018 marks the Golden Anniversary of Congregation Beth Shalom with the dedication of a special grove in Israel acknowledging CBS’ 50th year.

As the newsletter “goes to press,” our profit from the Luncheon is at about $32,000 but this amount will increase as the rest of our Sponsorship pledges and additional donations come in over the next 60 days. The Legacy program book acknowledged so many individuals from our sponsors, to our volunteers, our advertisers and finally our amazing Legacy Committee who put the entire event together. I cannot thank people enough for all of their efforts and “labor” these past several months to put this event on. Gail Koren, stepped up to the task this year of doing all the data entry work for the auction and registration parts of the event which was a huge task and she did it so incredibly well. Marci Rouman was the event’s Auction Chair and oversaw any and all items coming through for the auction. Marci never “missed a beat” with all the items that were coming in. Bruce Rouman again outdid himself with amazing video montages and all of his technical expertise with setting up software and all the “nitty gritty” work he does to get the invitations printed. Dennis Itzkowitz, the Master Solicitor, did again, a wonderful job of getting some highly sought after auction items which went for “top dollar” on the auction. Joan Jacobs, the Committee’s Internet “Wiz” was tireless in her requests of dozens of auction items. Kathy Stone was our master “gift basket” maker and was the “point person” for setting up the auction at Eagle Glen. Jackie Williams left no stone unturned with her attention to detail in all her planning with Eagle Glen. Bruce Williams made the wonderful display sheets for over 50 items on the auction. Mark Koren, Dennis Brooks and David Schulman gave all their energies to capturing the event on film. Joyce Severson and Sheila-Marie Singelman were invaluable in securing auction items along with Bobby and Karen Spiegel who took care of the Program Book and obtaining proclamations from city officials. As he has done for so many years, Joel Williams is to be commended for his impeccable Emcee work along with Bobby Spiegel, our auctioneer for the “Trees in Israel” part of our auction. Additionally, we need to thank Dave and Deborah Cook who helped with auction set-up and assisted throughout the event along with Wendy Izenman and Amanda and Chelsea Williams, our youth, who did any task they were asked to do that day. Thanks also go to Rebecca Spiegel and Brea Dansereau, Too the Moon and Back for event publicity. A wonderful venue was provided by Eagle Glen Golf Club. The event’s registration, auction coordination and check in/out was hosted by Eileen Hayden of Event Solutions. Truly, we all worked together to put on an amazing, professional event!!

Thanks to all of you who attended. Fifty years and going strong!!

Special Thanks to Renee Miller, Chairman Extraordinaire

The following pages will provide you a glance of what our little synagogue was able to accomplish. Beginning on page 12 is a listing of over 500 trees being planted in Israel in the special CBS 50th Anniversary Grove; then it is often stated a picture says a 1000 words, well our “Camera Crew” of Dennis Brooks, Mark Koren and David Schulman captured every detail of our event. As Renee Miller was so kind to mention everyone above, it is very noticeable that without Renee’s leadership, guidance and follow up this event would not have been as successful as it was. Whenever you see Renee, please let her know how much we appreciate her.

Shabbaton Experience

This is my 2nd experience at a Shabbaton at Camp Mountain Chai and I am so excited to share it with you.

Once we got off the bus from Pomona we went inside and we were told our cabin assignments. I saw another friend and counselor from a different camp that I had previously gone to- I was totally excited!

Then, we went to our cabin and got ready for Shabbat. I was surprised because during the service the rabbi was playing a ukulele. Then we had dinner. On Saturday, I woke up and it snowed! It was so beautiful! We ate breakfast and started our Saturday morning services. During the service we stopped toward the end and did activities to do with heroism because our theme was superheroes. We made mensch minestrone in mason jars to donate to the Ronald McDonald house.

We finished services and ate lunch. After that we had games/activities. I went on a snow hike and helped build a giant snowball that was about 2 feet tall. We built superhero fortresses from what we could find on the mountain, and ate a yummy dinner.

Surprisingly, there was a superhero carnival and we could paint masks, play giant jenga, make a golem out of clay, and much more. Bed was next on the agenda, sadly. We woke up, ate breakfast, did a closing circle, and then left. I am so happy that I went on a Shabbaton because I made new Jewish friends and got new experiences.

I hope I can go back next year.
