HAPPY ANNIVERSARY CBS of CORONA!

The number 50 has many meanings in our Jewish history. The first one that comes to mind is the time from our Exodus in the Passover story to the receiving of the gift of the Torah (on Shavu'ot) 50 days later. If we look at this mathematically, that is 7 squared or 7 days X 7 weeks, plus one day!

When you look at the progression of growth at CBS over the years there has been constant movement forward over time with goals in mind on a weekly, monthly, and annual basis. Much like when we count from 1 to 49 and then finally reach the number 50! Each day we move towards elevating self and community spiritually and physically. And reaching the 50th year is the pinnacle of where we are at this moment in time!

Like the Exodus from Egypt, when CBS was formed 50 years ago, it was a joyous and momentous occasion! A group of like-minded Jewish people joined together with a common goal of providing Jewish services such as family dinners, Hebrew school, and the many life cycle events that would elevate us as a people. We were and still are after 50 years Am Echad...One people!

It is true that people come and go for various reasons, but the establishment of this entity called Congregation Beth Shalom and what it has stood for all these years remains. A place for our people to gather, to join one another, to be social, to pray, to learn, to grow together, and support each other as a community, and sometimes just "to be"!

memories created, may we begin to prepare and plan for ourselves what we want to accomplish for the coming year and remember where we may have fallen short. As we approach the High Holidays and look within ourselves during the 50 days of preparation time between Rosh Chodesh Elul (29 days) until the end of Hoshana Rabbah (21 Tishrei) (towards Teshuvah or repentance) may we all feel a sense of accomplishment keeping in mind what we hope to achieve for ourselves, our families, community, and the world in body and soul for the coming year!

There are many, many more items and ideas on the significance of the number 50 in Judaism. I encourage you all to further investigate this and learn how the number 50 fits into your life! The 50th is the point of arrival. On the 50th, we can say, we made it! We did it! I can't wait to see what the next 50 years of CBS accomplishments will bring in the way of making the world a better place!

Stumble Stones has synagogue connection!

A Message from the President

Stolpersteine or otherwise called stumble stones. They are meant to trip memory. Each is a brass plaque measuring about 4 by 4 inches and hand-engraved by artist Gunter Demnig with the name and a few terse details of someone lost to the Holocaust. Each stumble stone is set permanently into the sidewalk outside the place where the individual lived, laughed, and loved -- usually a house or apartment building and sometimes a shop or office.

Mr. Demnig has hammered more than 10,000 plaques into the sidewalks of 202 German cities and towns. Each stone represents archival research by families or Jewish groups as well as the painstaking work of carving of the malleable yellow metal.

The project has been described as the largest artwork in Europe. It is a work in progress, certainly, and a work seemingly without end. A few stumble stones have been wrenched from the ground by irate neighbors or neo-Nazis. Others have been defaced with swastikas. There are still a few places in Germany where ultra-right sentiment burns fiercely enough among locals that Demnig can go about his labor only with a police escort.

"Those are police rules, not my rules," stressed Demnig, a soft-spoken man who almost invariably wears a faded work shirt, red bandanna, and battered slouch hat. He survives on small private donations, refusing public money. "I don't feel in danger."

The low-key memorials have become a familiar part of the urban landscape in Germany, glinting on swank shopping boulevards or on gritty back streets of industrial neighborhoods. The personal-sized monuments seem to pack more emotional wallop than far grander memorials to the Holocaust.

Demnig said, This stone has a name of a single person on a single marker is to say, 'Look, this individual lived -- lived right here at this actual address. He or she looked out this window or stepped out that door every day. This was someone just like you or me. Not just an anonymous victim of history.'

One of the stones has the name Berta Spiegel, whose maiden name was Scheuer, and her husband, Josef Spiegel, ran a sporting goods shop at 6 Bucheimer St. in the Cologne suburb of Muelheim. The couple was "deported," the Nazi euphemism for removal of Jews from Germany, to Theresienstadt concentration camp, located in the present-day Czech Republic. They died there. Berta on Feb. 16, 1942 and Josef on Aug. 7, 1942.

"They were my grandparents on my father's side. They were just ordinary decent people leading quiet lives," said Herbert Spiegel, who with his parents escaped Germany at age 13, finding refuge in the United States. The retired electrical contractor spoke by phone from his home in Corona, Calif. "Then they were taken away and killed. Who knows why such things happen?"

Herbert Spiegel lost nearly a dozen relatives to the Nazis, including an uncle, Paul Spiegel, killed at an unknown date in the 1940s at Auschwitz, a German death camp located in Poland. It was at the behest of the Californian that Demnig installed three stumble stones in remembrance of Berta, Josef and Paul Spiegel outside the former premises of the sporting goods shop in Muelheim, now part of Cologne. "This makes this a place of remembrance for these three people," Demnig said. "It is not for 'all Jews' or 'all victims.' It is three markers for three human beings. If someone comes to mourn at this site, it should be for these three lost lives."

Only one mourner for the Spiegels attended the laying ceremony on a gray, rain-swept day:

Jeanette Schoëtt, a great-granddaughter of Berta and Josef. Her own mother escaped the Nazis, but eventually returned to Cologne.

"I'm grateful that this work has been done," she said. "It's frightening that even today there are some [Germans] who still paint their swastikas and do vandalism against Jews."

Religious School Update

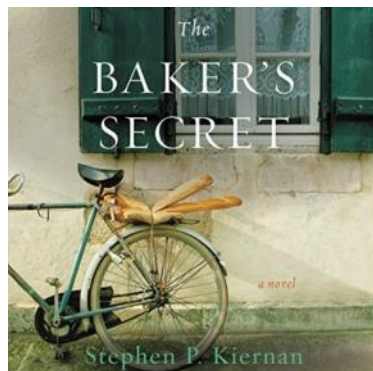

We are preparing for a new school year here at CBS Religious School. The first day of religious school is August 12. If you have not registered your child(ren), please call me. Classes begin at 8:30am and we appreciate all the parents for bringing their students on time and prepared to learn.

The school calendar is up on the website. Currently I am beginning to plan our Chanukah bazaar which will take place on November 18. It should be a good time. It is a great fundraiser for our religious school. Our Education committee is looking forward to the new school year. I hope all of our staff and students are having a fantastic summer break.

When Fiction Becomes Non-Fiction: A Case of Literary Mystification "Holocaust Fraud"

Dr. Barry Resnick presentation covers a seven-year investigation into a best-selling book that was sold as a true story based on events during WWII and how it turned out to be fictionalized. A clever author who slightly changed historical events; a group of felons; a duped protagonist and the world's largest publishing company contributed to the creation of the story and eventual book written in 13 languages and sold in 27 countries. Eventually movie rights were sold and a major media blitz in the U.S. was ready to launch...until the story began to unravel.

Dr Resnick, a resident of Anaheim Hills, is a counseling department faculty member with the Rancho Santiago Community College District. He has just completed his 38th year with the RSCCD. Dr. Resnick, a graduate of USC, earned his doctorate at BYU.

RITUAL Report

As you realize, the High Holy Days are next month. The Ritual Committee working with Cantor Bruce Shapiro have prepared a full schedule of services, found on page 7 of this newsletter. We will have complete packets for everyone. Members in Good-Standing will be contacted for Aliyot, reading Torah, and Haftorah portions and other honors.

There will be a luncheon after Rosh Hashanah, pre-Kol Nidre dinner and a Break-the-Fast (catered by Shirli Driz). There are lots of synagogue members working to make the High Holy Days run smoothly.

Sukkot will again be held at Bruce and Marci Rouman's home.

If you wish to help, please let me know

We hope to see everyone at services.

NEW MEMBERS SHABBAT DinnerSET

Join Congregation Beth Shalom on Friday evening, September 7 when we welcome our newest members to our synagogue.

We will be honoring our new members with a dinner before services. Food will be of an Italian nature. We welcome the following new member families: Ron & Eren Compton, Jason & Amber Devor, Barbara Sherman & William Erler, and Isaac & Katelynn Spiegel. Hopefully a few others will be added to the honorees before that date.

It would be nice if we had a large turnout for this service to complement our newest members. Dinner will start at 5:45 and the service will start at 6:30pm.

ISRAEL 2019

Still room for YOU to join us!

Dear Friends:

We are happy to report, we have over 20 people signed up for the synagogue trip for June 2019. We have room for a few more, so if you are interested, please connect with Marcy Shapiro immediately!

What a pleasure it is to present to you the itinerary and pricing for our upcoming trip to Israel from June 11-20, 2019!

This trip is a multi-faith trip where we will experience Christian, Jewish, Muslim, and Bedouin history and ideology. Although the itinerary is jam-packed it allows additional free time to explore and shop.

The tour company will be asking for a $500 deposit (of which $ 300 will be non-refundable) per person in now to ensure we have enough interest to make the trip happen and to keep the cost at the rates listed below. The trip is open to anyone you know who would be interested in sharing this amazing opportunity.

The cost for the trip is as follows:

Group of 20	$3118 plus $104 for tips
Group of 30	$2925 plus $104 for tips

(Tips will be collected prior to departure)

June of 2019 is coming fast so make your commitment to come to Israel and enjoy this trip of a lifetime!

Airfare and some meals are on your own.

Exciting News! Yaakov Selavan (Spiegel's cousin) has received confirmation for being part of the tour for Congregation Beth Shalom 2019. Yaakov provided in-depth background on the conflict in Syria. He shared with our 2016 trip on his last official day of service in the military. Since then he has developed a company called Slingshot. Contact Marcy Shapiro now!!

Thank you and we look forward to sharing Israel with all of you in June of 2019!

Demnig has also installed stones outside the former dwellings of other Holocaust victims -- gypsies and Jehovah's Witnesses, homosexuals and left-wing activists. Not all Germans or even all Jews admire his work.

Some cities such as Munich has flatly refused to grant the artist permission to install stumble stones.

Families seeking memorials pay a fee of 95 Euros (about $122) to help cover the cost of materials. The waiting list stretches for years, and increasingly Demnig is fielding requests from other descendants of Jews deported from other parts of Europe to the Nazi death camps.

He has installed stumble stones in Austria and expects to install the first in Hungary this year.

He is awaiting approval from the Netherlands, Italy, Denmark, Ukraine and expects permits will be granted. Demnig says that so far France has not approved the project.

He usually puts in 12-hour days and seven-day weeks installing the stones with crowbars, chisels, and hammer. It's exhausting work.

"Officials lay wreaths, but average citizens rarely bother with these places," he said. "Stumble stones are on streets where everyone walks. The names cry out from the sidewalks of everyday life." Demnig has won recognition for his project.

In 2005, he received the Obermayer German—Jewish History Award, established by Massachusetts entrepreneur Arther Obermayer.

"This is my life's work. I will continue for as long as I'm able," Demnig said.

Upcoming Onegs

Hosting an Oneg is a way for members to share their happiness, to honor/remember a loved one, or merely do a Mitzvah. If you wish to host an Oneg, simply contact Gail Koren at (951) 688-1709 or (951) 204-4757.

When shopping, look for dairy items with a Kosher symbol, as our synagogue kitchen must remain Kosher.

Should the synagogue not have a host, then we will serve Challah and wine – with the traditional blessings.

By making a donation of $125 to Congregation Beth Shalom, we will shop for you.

We appreciate your help for set-up and clean-up, if you are physically able.

Thank You for your kind participation.

Challah's can be furnished by the sponsor or as a convenience, you can purchase from Mark Koren who bakes fresh Challahs for onegs or other event. Challahs come in 2 sizes:

- 2 lbs (Plain, poppy or sesame is $7, OR raisin-cinnamon, choc chip, other flavors for $8)
- 1 lb. (Plain, poppy or sesame is $5, OR raisin-cinnamon, choc chip, other flavors for $6)

We use 2 challahs for Friday Shabbat Evening.

For orders contact Mark Koren 951-204-0635.

WHY Sponsor an Oneg Shabbat

In Ma*gein A*vot (You Shield Our Ancestors), the line with "oneg" translates to "sated with pleasure". What better way to get to know other Congregants than by "breaking challah" together? After an uplifting musical service, we adjourn to "Happy Hour"! Every Member of our congregation is a welcoming tool of Membership where everyone benefits.
