

Cantor's Corner

Cantor Bruce Shapiro

During the month of July, Marcy and I will be attending my 40th High School reunion in Oswego, NY (Upstate NY). There are many parallels between this reunion and the time of the Israelites, joined together and met at Mount Sinai as the Jewish people.

As the former Class President, I hope to say a few words to the Class of 1978 and to you. So, here we go!

40 years....that is a long time period. First thing that comes to my mind is....where did the time go? This has been a heck of a journey with lots of twists and turns along the way. Like the Israelites who wandered in the desert for 40 years, we too have made many decisions to move our lives forward, sometimes with success and sometimes not. That is a part of life and you know the old saying, "you can't win them all".... (not directed at our Wednesday night poker players!)

40 years ago, we were all about 18 years old....full of "new ideas about how the world should be run" ready to go out into the world and conquer it. Some of us had dreams of what we wanted to do, where we wanted to go, what we would become....some of us not so much.

40 years....the time that the Israelites spent in the desert with Moses their prophet, their leader, their friend. I am no Moses, no prophet, but I am and was many peoples friend. When I think back to the days of elementary, middle, and high school, it wasn't about the learning of which we did a lot; it was about the relationships we had with people. Even today, I have found that in working at a job which I have done for over 10 years, it is not the job that makes me want to go to work every day, but it is the people that I work with and the people that I help and interact with each and every day that gets me going in the AM.

As I look back on my youth, I think that is very true for me and maybe for you. What powered me up in the AM to get to school, wasn't that our first class was at 7:55 AM, or that a paper was due or a pop quiz....it was you, my fellow classmates and friends of whom I had a relationship with. It is as true now as it was then, we all did not get along with everyone and we were not friends with everyone. We had cliques, classes, activities, and daily musings that put us in different places with different people each day. This was and is the greatest thing....daily interactions and the reaching out to so many.

In my own world it included, sports, band, religion, and academics. For others it included shop, clubs, and politics. There were so many different combinations that brought us all together.

Oswego has been on my mind since I was sent the news via email over a year ago that we were having this reunion. I immediately sent in my reservation and made hotel reservations! I don't think I have been there for about 10-15 years. So many things I looked forward to when coming back to my place of birth. So many faces I have not seen that I wanted to, so many places to visit, to eat! I look forward to eating at my favorite restaurants enjoying each other's camaraderie and creating new memories. This was the small town atmosphere that was our world so many years ago and now. This was and is the center of our world....it is our roots. It is the base of our Tree of Life, the source of who we are, who we have become, but not the end of our story. This town, the people there, they do not define who I am as a person out there in the world, but Oswego and the people there are part of my being, my thread, my soul. There are many more twists and turns, and journeys to take with and without each other in the years to come!

Adon Olam, as we head into the summer months and with it the vacation memories we create, may we all go and return safely and with a feeling of accomplishment and renewed relationships with our families, friends, and You. Have a great summer!

Best Jewish Foods—Part II or Food for Thought!

A Message from the President

...After last month's article on the Best Jewish foods, I forgot to let you know where you can find these unique Jewish delights. The problem is where this newsletter gets published there are no close-by deli's in the Inland area. So here's a list of those I found in the southland, but worth the drive.

Nearest the Riverside/ Corona area:

Rockafellas Famous Deli – Temecula's newest pizzeria, Jewish-style deli, restaurant and bakery on Winchester Dr. in Temecula

Shermans Deli & Bakery – Recently featured on the Food Network's Diners Drive-Ins and Dives with Guy Fieri located in Palm Springs and Palm Desert

Here are some in Orange County:

Katella Deli, Bakery and Restaurant - Piled-high pastrami on rye, matzo ball soup & more Jewish deli favorites in a roomy eatery & bakery in Los Alamitos, CA

Benjies Restaurant - NY-style deli known for its famed corned beef & pastrami sandwiches & 1960s-era décor in Santa Ana, CA

O.C. Kosher Market – For fresh meat, Holiday special, Wines, on-line ordering, Israel products, etc. in Tustin, CA

Kosher Bite Deli – for Noshes & Appetizers, soups, Sandwiches and a variety of vegetarian plates and pita sandwiches, located in Laguna Hills, CA

Here are some in the South Bay & Long Beach:

Bixby's Brooklyn Deli - Simple, open coffee shop with classic Jewish deli fare like Reubens & bagels, plus American dinner in Long Beach, CA

New York Deli - Strip-mall standby for large NYC-style sandwiches & beer, plus deli salads & meats by the pound. Located in Torrance, CA

And even more in the LA area:

Pico Kosher Deli - Glatt kosher go-to since 1968 serving classic sandwiches, soups, sides & hot plates in casual digs in Los Angeles, CA

Nate'n Al Delicatessen - Bustling, landmark Jewish deli with a casual vibe featuring house rye, corned beef & pastrami in Beverly Hills, CA

Canter's Restaurant, Bakery, Deli and Bar - Landmark deli offering a huge variety of hearty sandwiches & baked goods around the clock on Fairfax in Los Angeles, CA. BTW Canter's Restaurant just opened in Pasadena

Langer's Delicatessen-Restaurant - Old-fashioned deli serving up hot pastrami sandwiches &

other traditional comfort food since 1947 in Los Angeles, CA

Art's Delicatessen & Restaurant - Blintzes, corned beef sandwiches & matzo-ball soup are menu highlights at this old-fashioned deli located in Studio City, CA

Labels Table Deli - bare-bones NYC-style deli dishing up Jewish favorites like pastrami on rye & dill pickles in Los Angeles, CA

Lenny's Deli - A modernized NY-style deli serves breakfast all day, sandwiches, pastries & more in diner-like digs in Los Angeles, CA

Wexler's Deli - Compact old-school, new wave deli offering bagels & sandwiches filled with house-cured meats & fish in Santa Monica, CA

I'm sure you know of another great deli restaurant that I forgot, but here's plenty ...so go and enjoy !

Education Report

It has been a wonderful, busy year here at CBS Religious School.

We are fortunate to have a supportive teaching staff. Pam D'Agostino taught our K/Pre K group, with love and patience. Those little ones are adorable. Jessica Rouman taught our first and second graders. She did a fine job working with them. The students learned about holidays and Bible stories during the school year. Renée Tieszen taught our six and seventh grade students as well as our Confirmation group. Chelsea Williams taught our youngest Hebrew school students along with our assistant teacher, Seth D'Agostino. Jessica Rouman taught our older Hebrew students with the help of our Hebrew assistants Ilana D'Agostino and Amanda Williams. All of our teaching staff assisted with special projects during the school year. Their efforts are greatly appreciated.

I had the pleasure of working with a dedicated Education Committee this year. They were always available to help with whatever was needed. It does take a village for sure. Jackie Williams, Amber Devor, and Renée Tieszen, thank you for all of your hard work this year.

The tour company will be asking for a $500 deposit (of which $ 300 will be non-refundable) per person in now to ensure we have enough interest to make the trip happen and to keep the cost at the rates listed below. The trip is open to anyone you know who would be interested in sharing this amazing opportunity.

The cost for the trip is as follows:

Group of 20 $3118 plus $104 for tips
Group of 30 $2925 plus $104 for tips

(Tips will be collected prior to departure)

June of 2019 is coming fast so make your commitment to come to Israel and enjoy this trip of a lifetime!

Upcoming Onegs

Hosting an Oneg is a way for members to share their happiness, to honor/remember a loved one, or merely do a Mitzvah. If you wish to host an Oneg, simply contact Gail Koren at (951) 688-1709 or (951) 204-4757.

When shopping, look for dairy items with a Kosher symbol, as our synagogue kitchen must remain Kosher.

Should the synagogue not have a host, then we will serve Challah and wine – with the traditional blessings.

By making a donation of $125 to Congregation Beth Shalom, we will shop for you.

We appreciate your help for set-up and clean-up, if you are physically able.

Thank You for your kind participation.

WHY Sponsor an Oneg Shabbat

In Ma*gein A*vot (You Shield Our Ancestors), the line with "oneg" translates to "sated with pleasure". What better way to get to know other Congregants than by "breaking challah" together? After an uplifting musical service, we adjourn to "Happy Hour"! Every Member of our congregation is a welcoming tool of Membership where everyone benefits.
