

Cantor's Corner by Cantor Bruce Shapiro

In last month's article, I mentioned Cheshbon HaNefesh! "Check" please.

A Cheshbon is a bill (like in a restaurant) or a check. Cheshbon HaNefesh is a "check" on how our "nefesh" or "soul" is doing. In other words, an "accounting of the soul" or

"What does my life add up to right now?"

1. In what ways have I made the world better?
2. In what ways have I made it worse?
3. How do I affect the lives of others?

4. Are their lives easier or harder because of my behavior?

The questions themselves take us out of the realm of self. We ask not "who or what has been good for me?" but "for whom or what have I been good?" Cheshbon HaNefesh is the beginning of Teshuvah (repair/fixing). Each year, during the month of Elul, we prepare for this accounting and take the time to repair the wrongs we have done in the prior year. It is hard not to transgress, but there is a way to make "real" change. In order to do this, we must take into mind what can be changed, fixed, or repaired (Tikkun). We must remember that we are High Holy Days, begins this month!

As members of CBS, you should have received your High Holy Day package. Since you are a member, your membership helps cover our costs of High Holy Days Services. Non-members will be contributing towards these costs by purchasing tickets for High Holy Days. There are special items available for members only, and we hope you take advantage of those items.

We thank you for being a member. It is often understated that those who invest in the synagogue all year long, are truly the backbone of our stability.

We know that there is often an ill feeling about charging for the High Holy Day services. Let's face it, you and all other dues paying members carry the synagogue for the entire year, to ensure we are able to host the many features, from High Holy Day Services, with our exceptionally talented and caring Cantor, to our guest Rabbi Mel Young, who will be joining us again this year. The optional events, from free Pre-Rosh Hashanah light snacks; Break The Fast is affordably priced as our synagogue doesn't treat this as a fund raiser, merely a friend-raiser. The Pre-Kol Nidre dinner and Rosh Hashanah luncheon are organized for convenience and bringing our synagogue together. The fees you pay are directly to the restaurant.

We have various icons depicting the different events and celebrations you might want to participate in. If you are not currently a member of CBS, we welcome you to join us!

Thank you again for your continual support.

accountable to the Holy One (a King perhaps) and this is a difficult concept for many to “wrap their heads around”. It is not easy to think that we are accountable to someone or something that has to do with our lives. But, on Rosh Hashana, we have a “real King” to give praise and say thanks to.

I found it interesting that in Chassidus (aka Chasidism), there is no Tikkun Olam, repairing of the world, but only Tikkun HaNefesh, the fixing of oneself, not others. Along that line, we may think that it's only the actions we have taken, and the speech we have used. But thought can also be included too! We can and must change the thoughts that are in our mind too.

During the month of Elul, we prepare by using the tools we have such as meditation, prayer, relationships, the way we work, eat, relate to others or the way we dress. Rosh Hashana is the deepening of the understanding of who we are in the world. We look for our “purpose” here on earth... Why are we here?

The purpose of living is to free the “sparks” in order to make good in the world. As my teacher Ronni Serr said, “to make a sad song, and make it better”. We have the opportunity for Teshuvah, to repair ourselves. In turn, we can help others. We must start with those we have transgressed against individually, saying, “I am sorry and I will do better next year”. Then, we address the transgressions we have done before Hashem and ask for forgiveness. These we do as individuals and on the High Holidays as a community.

The Judgement books are now open for review. How will you tip the “scale” of the Book of Life in your favor? Cheshbon HaNefesh is the essential prelude to meaningful change. If we approach the process humbly and sincerely, it can provide us with a map for more worthy living.

Adon Olam, Master of the Universe, may we hear the loud call to action of the Shofar each weekday during the month of Elul as we say “I am sorry” to those we may have harmed this past year and promise to do better next year. We continue to do Teshuvah for ourselves with the hopes of self-improvement and an accounting of our actions, speech, and thoughts.

Happy New Year...L'Shana tova tikateivu v'teichatemu!
May you be inscribed in the Book of Life for a year of Happiness, Good Health, and Prosperity from the Shapiro Family!

President's Message

Founding of Hadassah

Our recent visit to Israel took us to the Hadassah Hospital in Jerusalem. Here's a brief history of the organization & it's founder.

The founding of Hadassah started on February 24, 1912 when 38 women gathered at Temple Emanu-El in New York City to create a new organization called Daughters of Zion. Under the leadership of Henrietta Szold, they hoped to create "a large organization of women Zionists" devoted to "the promotion of Jewish institutions and enterprises in Palestine, and the fostering of Jewish ideals." In 1914, Daughters of Zion, was renamed Hadassah: The Women's Zionist Organization of America. Today, Hadassah describes itself as the largest voluntary women's organization and largest Jewish membership organization in the United States.

Dissatisfied by the limited opportunities for women's leadership in the Jewish world and inspired by a 1909 trip to Palestine, Szold was determined to create her own organization where women could lead in practical social service work. Szold organized her group according to strict scientific and business principles. Modeling Hadassah after the National Council of Jewish Women, founded in 1893, she adopted a system of local chapters headed by a national office, and insisted that the organization be focused on social service.

Avoiding religious and political controversy, Hadassah recruited women from all streams of Judaism and reached out to non-Zionists as well as Zionists. Stressing woman-to-woman contact on humanitarian and social feminist grounds, the organization grew quickly. From an initial roster of 38 women, the organization grew to 21,000 members in 34 chapters within its first five years. Today it claims more than 330,000 members.

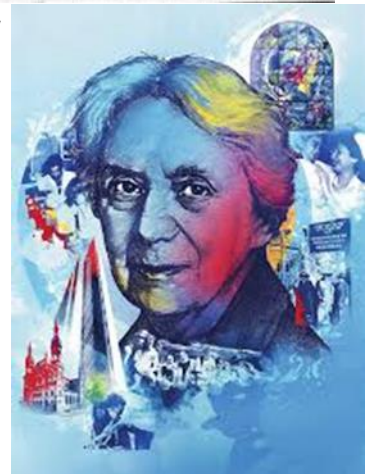

Hadassah turned to health care for its first projects, sending two nurses in 1913 to create a visiting nurse service in Palestine. Hadassah nurses established the region's first pediatric and maternity clinics, and helped to eradicate trachoma. Today, Hadassah supports two major medical centers in Jerusalem, among other endeavors. Active in health and education issues in the U.S. as well as in Israel, Hadassah has also turned to its roots by sponsoring study groups on Jewish and contemporary topics from stem cell research to Israeli women's fiction. Keeping Szold's example before them, Hadassah members continue to show that women can change the Jewish world.

About the founder

The remarkable Henrietta Szold was born in 1860 in Baltimore, Maryland, the child of Rabbi Benjamin Szold and his wife Sophie. A political liberal and a religious traditionalist, Rabbi Szold taught his daughter German, Hebrew, and the Jewish sacred texts to supplement her public school education. In her teens she began to work as a translator and an editor. She later became a teacher and wrote for a number of Jewish journals.

In 1888 she was chosen to be one of the nine members of the publication committee of the Jewish Publication Society (JPS). The only woman on the committee, she collaborated with Cyrus Adler on a contribution to JPS's first publication, Outlines of Jewish History. She also helped to edit Heinrich

Graetz's classic History of the Jews. In 1893 she became executive secretary of the publications committee and, for over two decades, was instrumental in the editing, translating, and publication of some of the most important works in American Judaism.

In 1909 Szold visited Palestine and became intensely involved in the work to reconstruct the Jewish homeland. At the age of 49 she had discovered her vocation. She devoted the rest of her life to Palestine — the promised land. Back in America she founded Hadassah, the Zionist organization for women. Szold had clearly become a "resident" of her adopted homeland. She died in 1945, three years before the creation of the State of Israel, which she had done so much to make possible.

No visit is complete without seeing the beautiful synagogue within the hospital. It contains twelve stained-glass windows from the famous artist Marc Chagall. Each window depicts a tribe of Israel and each with its own predominant color scheme, transform the space of the synagogue in Hadassah Hospital – Ein Karem into a dazzling play of light and colors in a way that is profoundly moving for a place of worship. Each window is about 11 feet tall and 8 feet wide. They were completed in 1961. They were on display in Paris, then New York, where record breaking crowds lined up around the block of the Museum of Modern Art to see them. The windows were installed in their permanent home in February 1962.

Change in Family Night Oneg

Family night services which occur on the first Friday of the month will still begin at 6:30 PM. However, there will no longer be an oneg at 5:45. Instead we will serve wine and challah at the end of services and then whoever is interested will join everyone for dinner at a local restaurant chosen that evening. We have been enjoying these dinners for a number of years. It is a great way to enjoy the Shabbat experience with our synagogue family.

EDUCATION Report

Marci Rouman, Education Director

It is my pleasure to welcome our staff and students to the new school year. It will be a great year at our CBS religious school.

In the upcoming newsletters, including this one, I will be introducing you to our staff. I will start with a teacher who has worked with us for four years. As well as teaching here, she grew up here and attended our religious school and had her Bat Mitzvah here.

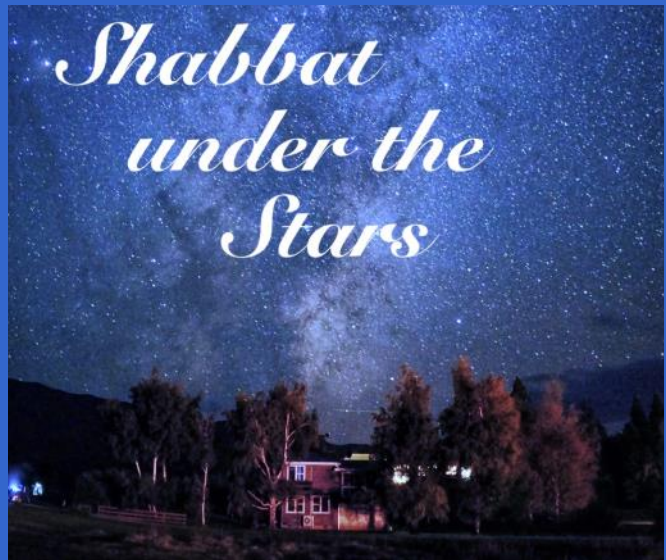

Here is some background if you don't know her personally, although I know most of you do. Jessi Rouman graduated from Norco High School. She began her higher education at Chico State University. She received her degree in liberal studies. She continued her education with a Masters degree in Applied Behavioral Analysis. She is employed at Behavioral Autism Specialties as a Case Supervisor.

We are honored to have her teach our students and when you see Jessi around, say hello.

RITUAL Report

High Holiday packets are in your email. Please note deadlines for the memorial book as well as the Break-the-Fast meal and extra High Holiday tickets. We need your responses as soon as possible.

I will be calling members in good standing to have the honor of an Aliyah for the High Holiday services. During each service Noemi Schulman will be asking members in good standing to participate in doing an honor, such as reading an English prayer.

Shabbat Under the Stars will take place on September 6 at our home. Dinner will be served at 6:00 PM and services will begin at 7:00. Thank you to all who made reservations with us before August 30. It is going to be a wonderful evening. Any questions, please connect with me.

Please bring a dessert to share for the Oneg and a chair(s) and/or a blanket that evening.

We hope to see everyone there. This event has always been well attended.

The Joy of Reading Torah

Reading from the Torah is like walking the Bible while holding the hand of G-d

Cantor Bruce would like every congregant of Beth Shalom to have the opportunity to feel the JOY, to walk with G-d and truly understand the message Moses delivered to G-d's chosen people on Mount Sinai.

Oh! You don't read Hebrew?

You don't know an aleph א from a gimel ג

how to Host an Oneg Shabbat

Hosting an Oneg is a way for members to share their happiness, to honor/remember a loved one, or merely do a Mitzvah. If you wish to host an Oneg, simply contact Gail Koren at (951) 688-1709 or (951) 204-4757.

When shopping, look for dairy items with a Kosher symbol, as our synagogue kitchen must remain Kosher.

Should the synagogue not have a host, then we will serve Challah and wine – with the traditional blessings.

By making a donation of $125 to Congregation Beth Shalom, we will shop for you.

We appreciate your help for set-up and clean-up, if you are physically able.

Thank You for your kind participation.

Thank you to everyone that supported our traditions by sponsoring an Oneg Shabbat. If you are interested in sponsoring an Oneg, it is very easy and inexpensive. Please call me before someone claims your special date. I will show you how easy it is. Gail Koren 951-204-4757.

WHY Sponsor an Oneg Shabbat

In Ma*gein A*vot (You Shield Our Ancestors), the line with "oneg" translates to "sated with pleasure". What better way to get to know other Congregants than by "breaking challah" together? After an uplifting musical service, we adjourn to "Happy Hour"! Every Member of our congregation is a welcoming tool of Membership where everyone benefits.

Will you FLY OLD GLORY?

CBS Member, KAREN SPIEGEL who serves as the elected Riverside

County Supervisor has shared this statement below, at a recent talk she gave. We have found this is so timely and very appropriate. There is now a Challenge to FLY OLD GLORY! Will you join the Challenge? We hope you will fly an American Flag on 9/11 and 9/12 (longer is even better). Log on to www.MyChamber.org to take the challenge, you can register for flying one, 5 or 10 or more American flags! Goal is to fly 2,996 the number of lives lost that day, 18 years ago this 9/11.

Next step, College

They sure grow up so fast.

We recall watching Chelsea start religious school, then prepping to become a Bat Mitzvah.

Now, as a teacher at CBS, in August, she began attending Riverside Community College .

I MISS 9/12

I would never ever want another 9/11, but I miss the America of 9/12.

Stores ran out of flags to sell because they were being flown everywhere.

People were Americans before they were upper or lower class, Jewish or Christian, Republican or Democrat.

We hugged people without caring if they ate at Chick-Fil-A or wore Nikes.

Yale researchers find - People who read live longer than those who don't.

Set in the London of the 1660s and of the early 21st century, The Weight of Ink is the interwoven tale of two women of remarkable intellect: Ester Velasquez, an emigrant from Amsterdam who is permitted to scribe for a blind rabbi just before the plague hits the city, and Helen Watt, an ailing historian with a love of Jewish history.

As the novel opens, Helen has been summoned by a former student to view a cache of 17th-century Jewish documents newly discovered in his home during a renovation. Enlisting the help of Aaron Levy, an American graduate student as impatient as he is charming, and in a race with another fast-moving team of historians, Helen embarks on one last project: to determine the identity of the documents' scribe, the elusive "Aleph".

Electrifying and ambitious, sweeping in scope and intimate in tone, The Weight of Ink is a sophisticated work of historical fiction about women separated by centuries, and the choices and sacrifices they must make in order to reconcile the life of the heart and mind.

You are invited to participate more in Friday Night Services!

Do you...

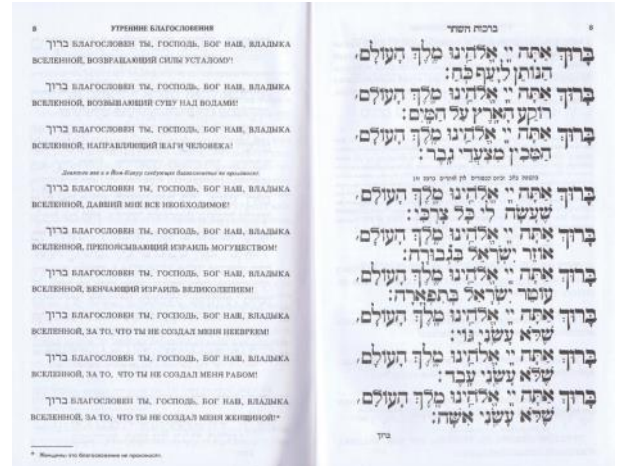

- Like the music, but can't quite get the words?
- Know the words but believe you don't sing well enough?
- Have a favorite prayer or melody that you would like us to read or sing?

Would you like to feel more included in the service?

Do you sometimes think "I could do that too and it would be fun!"

- At Congregation Beth Shalom we have a unique opportunity to make our services be what WE want them to be.
- While a certain structure has to be followed, there are lots of options and our Friday Night Siddur gives us many choices of prayers to read and/or chant.
- We love having our Pre- and Post-B'nai Mitzvah students lead services, and don't want to leave the rest of you feeling there is no time that you can experience what they do.

Yeah? What's it gonna cost me—$0

And the hidden monthly fees? - $0

And I have to obligate myself to? Only what you are comfortable doing.

So, how about it? Give us a chance to prove how fulfilling an Erev Shabbat service can be.

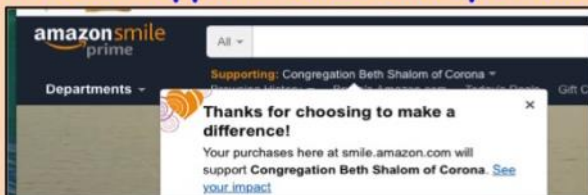

Please send an e-mail to Joan Zak at jzak@cox.net and I will add you to the list.

There is absolutely NO Cost or obligation to be placed on the list.

Rosh HaShanah Lunch

Monday Sept. 30, 2019 @ 2PM

Join our congregation for lunch after Rosh HaShanah services at the Sizzler. It will be open menu and pay as you order. This will be prior to Tashlich which will be at 4pm at Village Grove Lake in Corona.

Sizzler 1461 Rimpau Ave. Corona
Behind McDonalds on
Magnolia Ave. & El Sobrante Rd.

Remember with all our special requests from the waiters and our relationship with Sizzler, please give an appropriate tip to our wait staff.

Pre-Kol Nidre Dinner

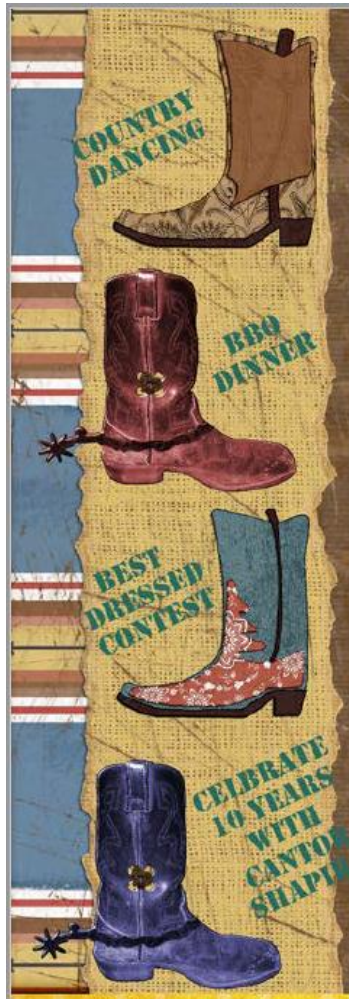

Tuesday Oct. 8, 2019 @ 4PM

A Pre-Kol Nidre dinner at the Sizzler is scheduled before services. It will be open menu and pay as you order. Also being Yom Kippur, our holiest day, we should suggest that we keep our choices in line with Jewish dietary laws.

Sizzler 1461 Rimpau Ave. Corona
Behind McDonalds on
Magnolia Ave. & El Sobrante Rd.

Remember with all our special requests from the waiters and our relationship with Sizzler, please give an appropriate tip to our wait staff.

Kristallnacht

The Night of the Broken Glass

NEVER AGAIN

Presented by Congregation Beth Shalom
 in association with the City of Corona
Wednesday, November 13, 2019
6:30 PM
Corona Civic Theatre
815 W. 6th St. Corona, California

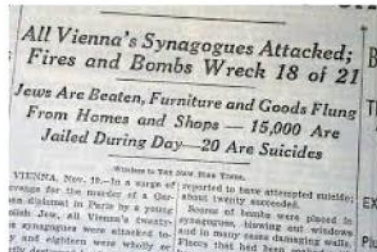

Our guest speaker for this year's program is Dr. Jacob Eisenbach. This will be Dr. Eisenbach's second appearance at our program. To say he can WOW an audience would be a massive understatement.

Although Eisenbach was forced to work in a labor camp that manufactured munitions for the Nazi war machine, he has always maintained a contagious smile, ebullient optimism and a belief that goodness will prevail.

Dr. Eisenbach is 96 years young and worked until four years ago in the dental office in Anaheim Hills, where he practiced for 41 years.

A fine Dentist, Holocaust survivor, captivating speaker and author, his presentation on November 13th is a must. His book, Where You Go, I Go, the story of two brothers clinging together for survival is a fascinating and terrifying page turner. Their family perished in the wrath of the Third Reich. Through it all Dr. Eisenbach maintained his belief in the ultimate humanity of man and has long since forgiven his Nazi tormentors.

Hear a chilling first hand report of the pain and misery caused when hate is allowed to raise its ugly head.
