Cantor's Corner by Cantor Bruce Shapiro OLD ENDINGS and NEW BEGINNINGS

This thought has been on my mind for a while. We all have starting and stopping points in our life. From the time we are born to the time we pass, we will all start and finish something and move on to the next project (grade, job, activity) on this journey we call Life!

And so it goes with our secular New Year. “For auld lang syne” (Robert Burns 1788) meaning “a long time ago”, for old times’ sake”, or “in days gone by”. The song is about old friendships, looking back over the years, and preserving relationships.

As we continue in our cycle in the Jewish year, Tu Bishvat (15th of SheVat), the New Year for trees comes on Sunday, January 16. Yes, even trees have a cycle of life! To celebrate

WORLD WIDE WRAP FEBRUARY 6, 2022

Join us on Sunday, February 6 for our annual WRAPPING of Tefillin. Congregation Beth Shalom (CBS) will participate in the World Wide Wrap (WWW), where all members of the community are welcome to join us in the daily traditional prayers, and the importance of putting on Tefillin:

Wearing Tefillin reminds us, by way of heart and mind who our Creator is. In the verses of the Shema in Torah, we are commanded to “Bind them for a sign upon your hands and upon your heart.” It reminds us that we are part of a community and provides focus for the day. Tefillin provide an impetus for us to say 100 Blessings Daily.

Breakfast, provided by the CBS Brotherhood, begins at 8:00 AM, followed by the World Wide Wrap program.

Breakfast is $5 per person, or $10 for the immediate family. Please see the flier on page 9 in this newsletter.

we eat a fruit that we have not tasted yet this season. Our children will celebrate this minor holiday with a Seder and eating fruits/nuts. This holiday represents the blossoming of the trees after this date that would belong to the next year for tithing purposes.

During SheVat, G-d reveals the 10 Commandments or the 10 Pronouncements to Moses beginning with the words, "G-d spoke all these words saying: "I AM"...(Exod 20:1-2). Rabbi Tanchuma said: "All at Mount Sinai, old and young, women, children, and infants, heard the voice of G-d according to their ability to understand." This is an important Midrash because no matter what your level of understanding is of Judaism, faith, Hashem, or related material, we all learn, absorb, and live our Jewish lives in a way that we understand, respect, and grow with it.

One of my favorite parts of Parasha Yithro emphasizes the observance of Shabbat. Everyone observes Shabbat in their own way. I encourage you to continue to observe Shabbat in your own way, but add or include this year, some time away from electronics, phones, or any type of work for a minimum of one hour or longer. See if you can increase this time over the years. Perhaps adding a visit to Shul on the 3rd Saturday of the month to help make a Minyan. This could become part of your repertoire and fulfill a few hours without outside interference.

Adon Olam, Master of the Universe, may we continue to heed the advice in the Torah. "And he (Moses) set before them these words", no more no less, meaning whatever I am looking for in my life, may I be open to the idea to strive and make the effort to discover it! May we continue to build upon "old" relationships and build new ones during the year!

In the Talmud it says the following:

"Teach me the whole Torah, a heathen said, while I stand on one foot. Shammai cursed and drove him away. He went to Hillel. Hillel said: What is hateful to you, do not do to anyone else; that is the whole Torah. The rest will follow...go now and learn it."

I am looking forward to seeing you all in person or on Zoom soon! Make a visit on any Friday evening for Shabbat or once per month on the 3rd Shabbat of the month for Torah Study and morning services. Please continue to stay healthy and wear a mask as required.

THE HIDDEN LANGUAGE OF TUBETEIKAS

(aka. a Russian word for many varieties of traditional Central Asian caps)

Bruce Rouman
President of CBS

Uzbekistan is located in South Eastern Asia near Afghanistan. While the majority of the population is Muslim, there is a sizeable Jewish community that has existed there for centuries. They are known as the Bukharan Jews. Part of Uzbek culture is a decorated skull-cap, which is considered one of the national cultural art forms and is an integral part of a folk costume. The art of embroidery achieved its greatest influence in the late 19th and mid 20th centuries. This is when skull-caps reached the highest point of popularity in the everyday life of Uzbek people and were manufactured everywhere. The tubeteika is worn typically by the Turkic ethnic groups of the region. ... among Sephardic and Moroccan Jews to wear Uzbeki tubeteikas as a kippah.

Below are some designs and special names of tubeteika.

Shakhrisabz (Men's)

When Timur (Former Amir of the Timurid Empire), a famously recognized

powerful military commander of the 14th century, conquered the land of modern day Iraq, he brought back master tubeteika embroiderers to his homeland. The floral ornaments are symbols of gratitude for the creation and generosity of the Earth and nature. Green on this tubeteika symbolizes immortality, red symbolizes courage, blue is fortune and luck, and yellow is considered a frozen sunray, bringing good luck.

Baysun (Men's)

The combination of colors in each sections has a different sacred meaning. White is the color and thus the symbol of cotton, also as it is diamond shaped. This tubeteika has many sides. On the lower side of it is a decorative stripe that is called a "jiyak". This type of tubeteika is hand woven and has a supernatural meaning. It protects the wearer from evil forces, so it goes around the rim to protect the head from all sides.

Karakalpak

The round, wheel-like, element on this tubeteika is called "the spit of the queen". According to the legend, a long time ago, one queen saw the beautiful work of one embroiderer and spat on it so as to not let the tubeteika be jinxed. If certain objects or even children were treated too well it was thought that bad spirits would come and take them away or jinx them so people treated good objects poorly to trick the bad spirits instead. This royal spit has stayed with this type of tubeteika. Ever since, this type of skull cap has kept its ability to repel bad spirits. Women's tubeteikas have a brace lush porn pom. Other than that, women's tubeteikas differ only in the fact that the lines on men's are broken and women's are round.

Gold Embroidered Tubeteika from Bukhara

The patterns embroidered onto these Tubeteikas

RITUAL Report

Jackie Williams, Ritual Chairperson

On Erev Shabbat during Chanukah, we gathered together as a community, and held our traditional candle lighting. Since it was the 6th night of Chanukah, the Chanukiyot shined with brightness. Enjoy some of the photos captured before our Erev Shabbat Service. Thank you Cantor Shapiro for leading us in songs and prayers!

Thank you to Jessi Rouman for leading services on December 10 and to Joan Zak for leading them on December 24. We are so grateful for your participation.

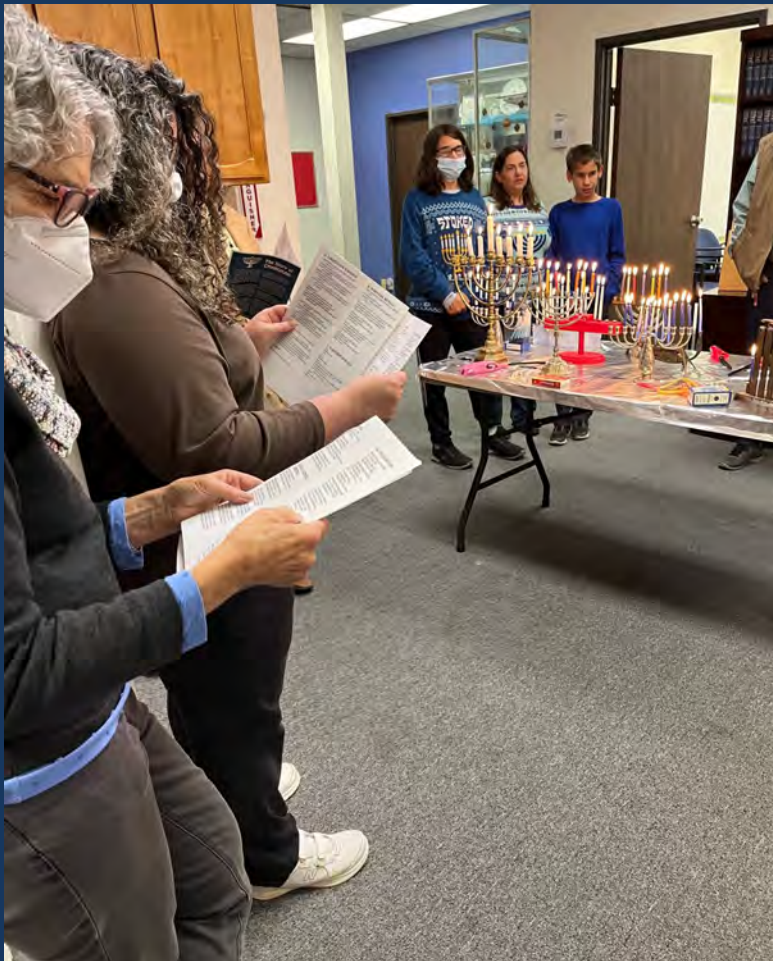

In January, Melissa and Zophia Lindenbaum will lead services on January 14 and Dennis Itzkowitz will lead services on January 28.

Bruce Rouman emailed an excel spreadsheet, listing all Friday and Saturday services. We are asking our members to sign up for at least one oneg in 2022. If you haven't already done so, we will be putting your name on the list for you. If you need to change that date it will be your responsibility to switch with another member. Our onegs should be simple with a pastry, maybe a fruit, possibly cheese and crackers, and a drink. You will need to set up the food and clean up the kitchen at the end of the oneg. If you have any questions you may call Gail Koren, Jackie Williams, or Renee Miller. Thank you everyone for your cooperation.

Happy (secular) New Year!

CHANUKAH Party

A huge thank you to Shirli Driz, Rebecca Spiegel and Tanya Spiegel for jumping in to chair and host a wonderful party celebrating Chanukah. Everyone who attended agreed: the food prepared by the three ladies and Marta Driz was delicious and festive, with Israeli salad, falafel, latkes and more! The games included Latke (similar to bingo) and decorating sugar cookies (thank you Paula Fogel). The entire event was awesome! Thank you ladies for bringing us this wonderful Chanukah Party.

The hidden history of Bletchley Park has been waiting for a master storyteller like Kate Quinn to bring it to life. The Rose Code effortlessly evokes the frantic, nervy, exuberant world of the Enigma codebreakers through the eyes of three extraordinary women who work in tireless secrecy to defeat the Nazis. Quinn's meticulous research and impeccable characterization shine through this gripping and beautifully executed novel." (Beatriz Williams, New York Times best-selling author of Her Last Flight)

The year 1940. As England prepares to fight the Nazis, three very different women answer the call to mysterious country estate Bletchley Park, where the best minds in Britain train to break German military codes. Vivacious debutante Osla is the girl who has everything - beauty, wealth, and the dashing Prince Philip of Greece sending her roses - but she burns to prove herself as more than a society girl and puts her fluent German to use as a translator of decoded enemy secrets. Imperious, self-made Mab, product of East End London poverty, works the legendary codebreaking machines as she conceals old wounds and looks for a socially advantageous husband. Both Osla and Mab are quick to see the potential in local village spinster Beth, whose shyness conceals a brilliant facility with puzzles, and soon Beth spreads her wings as one of the Park's few female cryptanalysts. But war, loss, and the impossible pressure of secrecy will tear the three apart.

The year 1947. As the royal wedding of Princess Elizabeth and Prince Philip whips post-war Britain into a fever, three friends-turned-enemies are reunited by a mysterious encrypted letter - the key to which lies buried in the long-ago betrayal that destroyed their friendship and left one of them confined to an asylum. A mysterious traitor has emerged from the shadows of their Bletchley Park past, and now Osla, Mab, and Beth must resurrect their old alliance and crack one last code together. But each petal they remove from the rose code brings danger - and their true enemy - closer....

EDUCATION Report

During the month of December, many students participated in our Chanukah festivities, including the Chanukah Friday night service followed by the Saturday evening Chanukah Party. Our students were well versed in the prayers and songs, and we are so proud of each of them.

In January, we will resume school with our curriculum that prepares students to attend synagogue anywhere and be able to participate in prayers and song. If you know of school-aged students, please let me know, as we want to grow our synagogue's Religious School.

On Sunday, February 6, the students will participate in World Wide Wrap. February also brings us to a special Bat Mitzvah. It is a B'not Mitzvah. A Bat Mitzvah of a mother and daughter will take place at our Synagogue. Ok who is it, you ask? Zophia Lindenbaum is a long time student of our religious school. She is a sweet, lovely young lady. Many of you have participated when she led Shabbat services at our synagogue. We have all watched her grow up here at CBS. To add to the story, Melissa Lindenbaum, her mom, wanted to learn Hebrew and have a Bat Mitzvah with her daughter. That is so special. I committed to teach her Hebrew. She is an amazing, dedicated student. The rest is history. The B'not Mitzvah is approaching quickly. The ladies will be having their B'not Mitzvah on February 19, 2022 at 9:30 AM. Please join the family and congregation in this memorable event.

It will be held at Eagle Glen Golf Club. This event will recognize some very deserving individuals and bring a group together to raise funds for our synagogue. Please plan to secure your seats or table sponsorship. Funds from this event will help the synagogue in different areas, perhaps the most well-known educational series is the Holocaust / Kristallnacht event. Listed below are our honorees.

Food for Thought: Warming Up the Soul

by Renée Ryan-Tieszen

Nothing warms the soul like a hot, steaming bowl of soup, especially chicken soup. It has been scientifically proven that chicken soup will cure the common cold better than any over-the-counter drug while clearing the sinuses, too. Yet, chicken soup can be a bit boring or uneventful. You can always add matzah balls, but that too, can become the same ol', same old. So, what's mom or bube to do?

Have you ever thought to change it up a bit by adding alphabet pasta or wild rice with matzah balls? Kreplach is a fun surprise for the taste buds instead of matzah balls. Or, turn your chicken soup into a ramen by adding Vietnamese pho matzah balls.

Perhaps adding different vegetables such as celery, green onions, mushrooms, or peas may be to your liking. Or, kick it up a notch with jalapeños. Better yet, skinny up your chicken soup with spiralized carrot, zucchini, sweet potato, or butternut squash noodles. Don't forget a touch of garlic, turmeric, or ginger.

Do you have a favorite chicken soup recipe you would like to share? Please send it to Renée Tieszen for publication in our next newsletter. Thank you.

Vietnamese Pho Matzah Balls

By Shannon Sarna of thenosher.com

Ingredients

- 1 c. matzah meal
- 1 tsp. kosher salt
- 1 tsp. baking powder
- ½ tsp. baking soda
- 4 large eggs, beaten
- ¼ c. schmaltz or oil (vegetable, safflower, or olive)
- ¼ c. minced scallions/ green onions

Directions

1. While the soup is simmering, in a large bowl whisk together the matzah meal, salt, baking powder and baking soda. Add the beaten eggs and schmaltz/oil. Add the scallions. Mix everything together until just combined. Do not overmix.
2. Refrigerate the mixture for at least 30 minutes. You may store the mixture up to a day before cooking.
3. Form the matzah ball mixture into even sized balls based on your preference. They will double in size when cooked. If you rub a little oil on your hands before forming the matzah balls, it will be easier.

4. Bring a large pot of water to a boil. Lower to a simmer and gently drip the matzah balls into the simmering water. Place the lid on the pot and continue to simmer for 30 minutes. Once cooked, matzah balls are best stored in their cooking liquid.

5. To serve the matzah ball pho, add shredded chicken, raw sliced onion and scallions to the bowl. Ladle hot chicken broth in bowl and add the matzah balls to the soup. Serve along with basil, bean sprouts, lime wedges, hoisin and hot sauces to your liking.

Beyond the SYNAGOGUE

Christmas Traditions

A group of CBS members continued the 'Christmas Tradition' of going out to eat for Chinese dinner. This year, Hong Kong Restaurant, in Corona, was the selected eatery for the synagogue members to meet at.

JOSH SPIEGEL CHAIRS ANNUAL GIVEAWAY ON CHRISTMAS DAY

One of Josh Spiegel's passions is helping others. On Christmas Day he chaired the Miracle on 6th Street Giveaway and Bar-B-Que for the less fortunate. This is part of Cowboys 4 a Cause, a non-profit in which he is an active board member. Josh solicited his family members, Mom and Dad (Karen and Bobby Spiegel) sisters Tanya, Rebecca, Rachel and nephew, RJ. The CBS Board is proud of you Josh for your commitment to help others.

in gold and silver thread are indicators that the wearer is of high social status or are worn on special occasions. Popular images displayed on these skull caps are the eye of a nightingale (a bird native to Uzbekistan), the tongue of a sparrow, stars, and dreams of the owner.

Andijan (Women's) →

This is a type of tubeteika which starts off as a solid white base with crosses. They often depict flowers, fruits, and other symbols depending on the wearer's values. The most common images on these skull caps are pomegranates, roses, and the path of a snake which Uzbek ancestors believed held magical powers. These tubeteikas are only made for young, unmarried women.

Tashkent (Women's)

This tubeteika has bright bird feathers on it. They can be roosters', pheasants', or peacocks' feathers which are believed to protect the wearer of the skull cap from evil and misfortune. The burgundy which they are made from gives them a dark green or dark blue color. This is accented by the colorful tones of the embroidered beads. There is more to this skull cap than just symbolic patterns as there are also images of animals and plants. These types of tubeteikas are worn only during certain events and celebrations.
