O' the Pandemic.

When will it end? Or has it? This is in itself a complicated and provocative question depending on who you talk to. Complicated we Jews can do all by ourselves, we don't need a Pandemic to complicate matters!

I am reminded that sometimes we can see each other as a community and sometimes we cannot, but we must remember those who cannot reach us via Zoom or in person. Zechar Am Yisrael...Remember, the Nation/People of Israel!

Part of what we do as a community is outreach to those in need of connecting. We can't do it by ourselves and right now, we can't do it in person. The next best thing is to "reach out and touch someone" (AT&T or other carrier) by phone. Yes, we have come to rely on our phones for communicating,

WORLD WIDE WRAP POSTPONED

Like many events, due to COVID concerns, the leadership at CBS has decided to postpone our annual WRAPPING of Tefillin. Congregation Beth Shalom (CBS) will participate in the World Wide Wrap once a new date is confirmed. Properly putting on and wearing tefillin is a mitzvah to perform as part of our weekday morning prayers and the World Wide Wrap (WWW) helps our members experience it. Stay tuned to our website, check your emails and we will announce our rescheduled date for the breakfast put on by the Brotherhood and our World Wide Wrap.

connecting, reading books, and playing games. We even use our phones to get from one place to another (GPS, not a magic carpet or transporter!).

On Shabbat Shekalim, 1 of 4 special Shabbatot before Passover, we read in Shemot (Exodus 30:11-16), about the Children of Israel who are counted for taxing purposes, to support the Tabernacle, as well as creating a census for men over the age of 20 to be counted for war preparation and warfare. Today these funds support our synagogues and are generally collected around Purim!

<https://blogs.timesofisrael.com/midrash-tanchuma-vayakhel-why-g-d-only-grants-wisdom-to-the-wise/>

I encourage you to peruse the attached link to this blog as it is an interesting Midrash (Story/Viewpoint) on Parasha Vayekhel. It provides several reasons why Hashem “grants wisdom to the wise” along with the “3 kinds of names people acquire in their lives”.

“The name given to us by our father and mother, the name by which others call us by, and the one we earn for ourselves, the most important (name) is the one we earn for ourselves.”

In the words of Midrash Tanchuma (Vayekhel): “The reason everyone was instructed to build the Ark is to make sure no one can say to his fellow Jew:

I contributed more to the building of the ark than you, therefore I am more learned and have a greater right to it than you do. And since you contributed little to the ark, you will have no portion in the Torah.” That is why the Torah is likened to water, as it is said: “Behold everyone that is thirsty, come to drink’ (Isaiah 55:1).”

The ultimate advice provided by this Torah portion is to be consistent in your behavior. You should act the same way on the “outside” as you are on the “inside”. “People take different roads to seeking fulfillment and happiness. Just because they are not on your road doesn’t mean they’ve gotten lost.” (Dalai Lama)

Adon Olam, Master of the Universe, please help us to stay connected to one another during this phase of the Pandemic. Allow our congregants to plan to reach out to those in need. We remember the saying, “a friend in need is a friend indeed.”

I am looking forward to seeing you all in person or on Zoom soon! Make a visit on any Friday evening for Shabbat or once per month on the 3rd Shabbat morning of the month for Torah Study (for 45 minutes) with morning services following. Please continue to stay healthy and wear a mask as required.

President's Message

In a Jewish Leap Year, During Which Adar Do I Observe Yahrzeit?

Bruce Rouman
President of CBS

This year, the Hebrew Calendar adjusts itself by adding the leap month of Adar II. I found the following very intriguing and since some of our congregants have lost relatives during Adar II, that this could be a good topic for my monthly article.

As you read this article, be sure to read the one below, as with every Jewish topic there is another side. This portion was written by Rabbi Eliezer Posner.

Question: My mother passed away in the month of Adar of 5756 (1996). When do I observe the yahrzeit on this year, a leap year that has two Adars?

Answer: Most years on the Jewish calendar (almost two thirds of them) have only one month of Adar. On a leap year, however, there are two months of Adars (Adar I and ADAR II). So which of the leap year's two Adars correspond to the Adar of the regular year?

The Talmud discusses a similar question: If one is drawing up a document during Adar of a leap year, how should it be dated? Rabbi Meir says that in Adar I we write "Adar I" but during Adar II, we write "Adar" – un-appended – because when the word Adar is unqualified, it means Adar II. Rabbi Judah says exactly the opposite: "Adar" on its own means Adar I; when referring to Adar II, one must specifically write "Adar II."

Maimonides rules according to Rabbi Meir's view—that the main Adar is Adar II. Thus, it would make sense to observe the yahrzeit during Adar II. However, there is also reason to argue that one should observe the yahrzeit on Adar I, based on the halachic rule that requires a person to always do a mitzvah at the first possible opportunity. According to this principle, the yahrzeit – and its associated mitzvot – should be observed in the first Adar.

So practically what is one to do? Different communities have different customs. In some communities the yahrzeit is observed in Adar I and in others, Adar II. Yet others observe the yahrzeit in both Adars. Speak to your rabbi/cantor to find out what your community's custom is.

But as in every Jewish topic there is another side:

The Aish Rabbi Replies:

There are different customs for this. Some see the second Adar as the primary one, as we celebrate Purim on the second. Others see the first Adar as the "actual" month of "Adar," with the second Adar not being "Adar" but "Adar 2." There is also the consideration that we should not "pass by" a mitzvah when it arrives by skipping the first Adar and only commemorating the second.

In practice, the custom of Sephardi Jews is to observe the yahrzeit on the second Adar. Ashkenazi Jews should preferably observe both days – to light the yahrzeit candle, recite Kaddish and fast if they are able. If, however, this is difficult, only the first Adar is observed.

If a person's parent passed away during an Adar of a year with two Adars, then in subsequent years with two Adars only the Adar in which he/she passed away is observed as the yahrzeit.

Confused enough... If you have a yahrzeit observance, CBS Yahrzeit letters hopefully captured the correct Adar month (Adar I or Adar II) dates for the yahrzeit you are observing. Therefore, if you missed coming to shul in Adar I, you have a 2nd opportunity in Adar II.

LINDENBAUM B'not Mitzvah

My name is Zophia Lindenbaum and I am 13 years old. I live in Rialto, California, with my mother and father. My mother, Melissa, and I will become B'not Mitzvah on February 19, 2022.

I am in the 7th grade at Etiwanda Intermediate School. My hobbies are reading, playing with my dog, talking to my friends and drawing. Some animals that I love are wolves, ferrets, cats, dogs, and snakes! I have an adorable Goldendoodle dog named Dory.

My mother converted to Judaism in 2016. She works for the Etiwanda School District as an instructional aide substitute. Her hobbies are cooking, reading, listening to music and continuing to learn about Judaism and what it means to be Jewish.

During the pandemic, my mother began Hebrew tutoring with Marci Rouman on Zoom. I had begun lessons with Marci several months earlier. It is very important to both of us that we become B'not Mitzvah together, just as we went to the Mikvah to become Jewish together, as we studied together and as we learned the Shabbat services with Cantor Bruce Shapiro.

We look forward to seeing you at our B'not Mitzvah on Saturday, February 19, 2022, at 9:30 AM at CBS. A Kiddish luncheon will be served directly after the service.

RITUAL

Report

Jackie Williams, Ritual Chairperson

Thank you to Melissa and Zophia Lindenbaum for leading services on January 14 and to Dennis Itzkowitz and Zophia Lindenbaum for leading them on January 28. We are so grateful for your participation. Services in February will be led by Bob Stone on February 11 and Tanya, Rebecca, and RJ Spiegel on February 25.

On Friday evening, February 18 and Saturday morning, February 19, Zophia and Melissa Lindenbaum will lead our services under the guidance of Cantor Shapiro.

We are postponing the World Wide Wrap until we can all be in the synagogue without the worry of COVID. When we do have the Wrap there will be a breakfast hosted by the CBS Brotherhood.

Zophia & Melissa

The Board of Directors wishes to extend a hearty Mazel Tov to Zophia Lindenbaum and her mother Melissa Lindenbaum as they are called to the Torah on February 19 to become 'Daughters of the Commandments'. The terminology typically refers to a Bat Mitzvah (Daughter of the Commandments), however now that both are women, it is called B'not Mitzvah.

We have watched both Zophia and Melissa study, and work on leading our services, each week getting more polished and prepared for this big weekend.

Join your synagogue family on Friday evening, February 18 for Erev Shabbat Services where Cantor Shapiro will introduce our service leaders, Zophia and Melissa Lindenbaum. That service begins at 7:30 PM. An Oneg Shabbat (refreshments) will be hosted by CBS members in honor of Zophia and Melissa.

On Saturday, February 19, our Shabbat Morning Services will begin at 9:30 AM. The entire congregation is welcome to attend, with a Kiddish following the services at the synagogue.

NOTE TO CBS MEMBERS: Because of the pandemic, we have limited capacity to seat all the family and guests of the Lindenbaum family. To enable greater social distancing, we request that CBS members consider watching the B'not Mitzvah at home on Zoom.

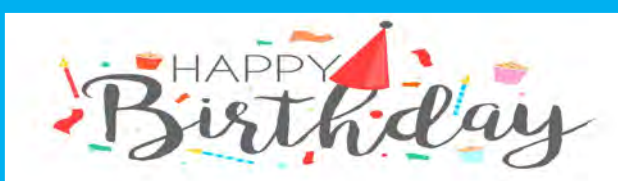

NOTICE TO ALL CBS MEMBERS

All CBS members should be receiving Yahrzeit reminder letters / notices of the anniversary of your loved ones.

If you are not receiving notices, please contact Jackie Williams (951) 734-8045, so we can make the corrections.

BOOK CLUB

ALL ABOUT ME!

Mel Brooks is the most successful comedian-actor-director of the 20th and 21st centuries. He created iconic film comedy classics like Blazing Saddles (1974), Young Frankenstein (1974) Spaceballs (1987) and Robin Hood: Men in Tights (1993), and he now joins an elite pantheon of EGOT (Emmy, Grammy, Oscar, and Tony Award) winners – the veritable “grand slam” of show business.

Melvin Kaminsky was born to Jewish immigrant parents in Brooklyn, New York on June 28, 1926. He had three older brothers, lost his 34-year-old father to kidney disease at the age of two, grew up in tenement housing, was small and sickly and bullied by his classmates, saw his first Broadway show at the age of nine, announced his decision to pursue a career in show business, became a teenage comedian, legally changed his name to Mel Brooks, graduated from high school, got drafted into the United States Army during World War II, defused land mines as the Allies advanced into Germany, returned to civilian life, started comedy writing, became a Hollywood director, and the rest is history.

This short book tells the intensely human story of a man who is changing the world in a way that no one else can.

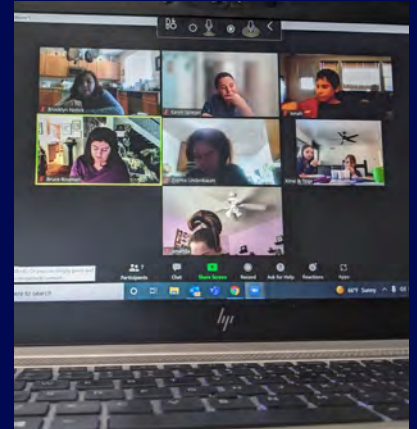

Book club will meet on zoom February 28th at 5:30 PM to review the fun book

EDUCATION Report

We returned to Zoom on a temporary basis after Winter Break due to COVID conditions. Recently, we returned to in-classroom learning! We began the spring semester with a cooking session on Zoom with Miss Marta. The students always enjoy cooking. We baked cookies with a Tu Bishvat flair. Oatmeal cookies with apricots were the item of the day. We had the Cantor join us for Hebrew learning and music. It was nice to have him join us.

Here is a “heads up” from the Education Director: Purim is approaching quickly! The religious school will be performing a Purim play. Our Cantor will be joining in on our act! We will bring the famous CBS players back! Also we will be putting our annual Purim fundraiser together as well. Fun times are ahead of us! The proceeds of the Mishloach Manot fundraiser supports the religious school. We will see everyone at Purim.

REMEMBERING PETER SCHWARTZ

Our synagogue was founded by six people, three couples, Jerry & Sylvia Tarshis, Stuart & JoAn Halperin, and Nick & Erika Schwartz—all of blessed memory.

On January 18, 2022 Peter Schwartz, the son of founders, and brother to Eileen Schwartz Cohen passed away from cancer. Peter was 72 years young. His Rabbi shared beautiful experiences the two of them had, and added, “Once Peter passed, I wanted to learn more about his home town.” After googling Corona CA, and finding all things about the Coronavirus; then Synagogues in Corona, CA only to find a listings of Coronavirus impacting synagogues...the Rabbi’s insistence in finding out more, he found our synagogue’s website and to his delight read about Nick and Erica and the other founders.

Peter graduated from Corona High School in 1967. He was an established and excellent musician. During high school the Jazz Ensemble grew to national recognition. He later moved to Chicago to run his business and raise his family.

Peter was a devoted husband, father, grandfather, and brother. Peter is survived by his wife, Jill, of 28 years, his children, Evan (Rebekah) Schwartz, Stamford, CT; Sonia (Aaron) Rubens, Chicago, IL; Jaclyn Schwartz, Park City, UT and Adam Schwartz, Geneva, IL; his grandchildren, Maya and Luca Rubens, Chicago, IL, and his sister, Eileen (Brian) Cohen, Los Angeles, CA. Peter was born in Indio, CA to Nicholas and Erika Schwartz on October 23, 1949. He grew up in Corona, CA where he enjoyed playing tennis, riding horses, hiking through orange groves, playing music in an award-winning jazz band, serving on student council, and spending time with family and friends. He received his B.A. in Political Science from California State University, Fullerton, and then began a long career in association management at NHFA, ASA, NAA, and the Homebuilders Association of Greater Chicago before purchasing Streng Agency in St. Charles, IL. Peter moved to Chicago in 1979 and also spent time living in Alexandria, VA, and Princeton, NJ, before settling in Geneva, IL. Peter had an infectious laugh and wonderful sense of humor. He had an affinity for history and a love of sailing, fishing, listening to music, travel, and golf. He was a brilliant writer and speaker. Peter had a penchant for style and delighted in the details. Most of all, he adored his family. He was the patriarch of our family and will be missed dearly by family and friends.

On behalf of the Board of Directors and the synagogue membership, we extend our condolences to the entire Schwartz / Cohen families.

Safety and Security Update by Joan Jacobs

SAFETY is paramount for CBS' Board of Directors. Their goal is to ensure a place of worship and gathering that is safe from any challenges, interruptions and health concerns.

Recently, CBS received three (3) decorative, concrete planters which will be placed strategically in the front of our building, to enhance safety there.

A special thank you to Ken Jacobs, Sam Miller and Bruce Rouman for their strong backs, in lifting the 120 pound (each) planter. We are grateful for the three men who dedicated TEAM (Time Energy Attitude and Muscle) to bring these planters to Corona!

CBS continues to be open for services, activities and events for all members and guests both in the synagogue and simultaneously on Zoom.

1. We will continue to sit socially distanced in the sanctuary.

2. Face masks MUST be worn indoors at all gatherings, according to the State of California.

3. The front door is locked 15 minutes after services begin. If you arrive when the door is locked, please ring the bell for admittance.

4. Remember that MOST, but not ALL, of our congregants have been fully vaccinated for COVID -19. Continue to take precautions, as needed, for your own personal health.

5. There is a possibility that some or all scheduled events listed in this Newsletter may be cancelled or postponed due to the Omicron and Delta Variant of Coronavirus. We are monitoring local health conditions daily and will decide to go ahead or cancel events on an individual basis to ensure the health and safety of our members.

Thank You!

Beyond the SYNAGOGUE

Costco carries this jam!

I felt this story needed to be shared

The incident took place in a supermarket in New Jersey. The tweet is by Michael Perino @ProfessorPerino

“At the supermarket today, I found a small, elderly woman standing in front of a high shelf holding @BonneMamanUS preserves. She was having trouble finding the flavor she wanted because the jars were set back on the shelf.

She couldn't read the labels. She could barely reach them. I offered to help.

After I handed her the raspberry preserves, she thanked me, paused, and then asked, “Do you know why I buy this brand?”

I laughed and replied, “Because it tastes good?”

“Yes, it tastes good.” She paused again. “I am a Holocaust survivor.”

This was not the conversation I expected on a Sunday grocery run. “During the war, the family that owns the company hid my family in Paris. So now I always buy it. And whenever I go to the store, my grandkids remind me, ‘Bubbe, don't forget to buy the jelly.’”

I told her that that was the best reason I ever heard to buy any company's product. And then we both smiled behind our masks and went our separate ways.”

Someone else on Twitter looked into the story and indeed, the town that Andros Company, the makers of Bonne Maman, comes from, hid and saved Jewish families in WW2. It was called Biars sur Cere, which then had about 800 villagers.

From an article, “You have to understand what it was like then. There were posters on the walls, from the Nazis and from the collaborators, and they said that if you are found to help a Jew, a freemason, a communist, a socialist, or a pervert, you will be shot on sight.” Despite the great danger in which helping them put the villagers in, still they kept the children safe.”

A good reason to buy Bonne Maman products. And a poignant reminder that when we look out for each other it can change lives, and that there are good and selfless people in the world.

♥Bonne Maman!
