CBS MONTHLY NEWSLETTER | AUGUST 2022 | TAMMUZ—AV 5782

Cantor's Corner by Cantor Bruce Shapiro

Last month I wrote about Spirituality and I mentioned that we don't often talk about what we do to be spiritual. Some people meditate, some play golf, some feel better when they are around grandchildren, ride bikes, journal, party, go to shul, or a variety of other activities.

At the end of June, I went to the Mikveh for myself for the first time in my life! Can you believe it took so long? I've wanted to go many times but just never made the time because I was "too busy" doing something else or the timing was just not right. I have been to the Mikveh with several congregants. Each time I have gone to visit, it has been exhilarating and uplifting. There is something about that place, the age-old formula for how the waters are created by merging flowing water and a melting block of ice (mayim chayim, living waters), the blessings said after each "dunk" under the water, and the overall ceremony that was crafted for each occasion.

I wrote a 3-page essay about why I was at the Mikveh, who I wanted to have present with me including my ancestors (parents, grandparents, etc.) so that I could hopefully feel their presence and let them know that I appreciated them and were

August 6—7 Annual Fast Day

Tisha B'Av (9th of Av) begins on the evening of Saturday, August 6 and ends at sundown on Sunday, August 7. It is an annual fast day in Judaism. It is the culmination of the Three (3) Weeks, also known as one of the most tragic days in Jewish history. Several disasters have occurred on the 9th of Av that have affected Jews for years. The day of mourning marks the destruction of Solomon's Temple by the Neo-Babylonian Empire and the Second Temple by the Roman Empire in Jerusalem. Av 9 is also the time that saw the fall of Bethar, and the end of the Jewish rebellion against Rome.

so glad to have had them in my life. They helped, guide, cajole, and move me to become the person I am today.

This past year has marked a new time frame in my life and I wanted to finally acknowledge this. Five years ago, I graduated from Yeshiva to become a credentialed Cantor, three (3) years ago, a grandfather, last December my semi-retirement from my 9-5 job, and in March, thirty-five (35) years of wedded bliss, and now the announcement of another grandchild! I have many blessings in my life! I wanted to acknowledge this. In addition to all the amazing things in my life, I also carried some "baggage" with me. I wanted to acknowledge this too. That I am human and make mistakes was said out loud. That I did not get to mourn properly the loss of loved ones in my life was also on my agenda.

For now, I have no major expectations for the next chapter in my life. I would hope to continue being human. I will have blessings and I will make mistakes. I have also taken up journaling, but not every day. I am writing my biography for future generations of my family. I want them to know who I was, what I stood for, how I got along in the world, mistakes I've made, and what I was passionate about. If this is something you have wanted to do, do it! Don't procrastinate. Just sit down at your computer or notepad and start writing or typing. Write down what is on your mind. It is freeing (and sometimes after doing this, I could actually fall asleep). It is helpful for the soul. Start with the first word and go from there. You won't regret it! Happy writing!

I'd like to hear from you about what your spiritual practice is if you are willing to share. There is no right or wrong way to do this. Next time I see you, or if you want to call, text, or email me, I'm interested. This means your kids and you. Remember, "What's good for the goose is good for the gander." (1678, John Ray, Collection of English proverbs.)

We are hoping for a June 2024 Adult B'Nai Mitzvah right here at CBS. If you are interested in joining our group, being a teacher, or taking part in some way, please contact me via email, phone, or in person at services. Remember TEAM...Together We Achieve More! Lastly, "alone we can do so little, together we can do so much!"

I am looking forward to seeing you all in person or on Zoom soon! Make a visit on any Friday evening for Shabbat or once per month usually on the 3rd Shabbat morning of the month (this month it will be the 1st Saturday, August 6 at 9 AM) for Torah Study (for 45 minutes) with morning services following. Please continue to stay healthy and wear a mask as required. I hope you are enjoying your summer!

KINDERTRANSPORT STORY

I recently saw a video of this man, Nicholas Winton and how he saved children on the Kindertransport. Read on - this is a very interesting story.

Nicholas Winton

Nicholas Winton was born Nicholas Wertheimer on May 19, 1909, in West Hampstead, England. His parents, who were of German Jewish ancestry, decided to baptize him the Anglican Church. He was a stockbroker by profession.

In December 1938, Martin Blake, a friend, and an instructional master at the Westminster School in London, asked Winton to forego his planned ski vacation. Instead, he asked Winton to visit him in Czechoslovakia, where he had traveled in his (Blake's) capacity as an associate of the British Committee for Refugees from Czechoslovakia. This committee was established in October 1938 to provide assistance for refugees created by the German annexation of the Sudeten regions under the terms of the Munich Pact. Convinced that a European war was imminent, Winton decided to go. In Prague, Blake introduced Winton to his colleague, Doreen Wariner, and arranged for him to visit refugee camps filled to capacity with Jews and political opponents from the Sudetenland.

After Munich, Winton was certain that the Germans would occupy the rest of Bohemia and Moravia. He was further alarmed by the violence against the Jewish community in Germany and Austria during the Kristallnacht riots in November 1938. He knew of the efforts of Jewish agencies in Britain to rescue German and Austrian Jewish children on the Kindertransport. This effort eventually brought about 10,000 unaccompanied children to safety in Great Britain. Winton summoned a small group of people to organize a similar rescue operation for children imperiled by the impending German dismemberment of Czechoslovakia in March 1939.

Winton immediately established a Children's Section and used the name of the British Committee for Refugees from Czechoslovakia. He initially, without authorization, began taking applications from parents at his hotel in Prague. As his operation expanded, he opened an office in central Prague. Soon, thousands of parents lined up outside of Winton's Children Section's office seeking a safe haven for their children.

Winton returned to London to organize the rescue operation

EDUCATION Report

Marci Rouman
Education Director

The job of the Education Director at CBS Religious School in the months of July and August is registering new students and making our classrooms sparkle. We want our school to look welcoming for our students and teachers.

In the new school year, we have two upcoming Bar Mitzvahs. Jonah Fusco will become a Bar Mitzvah on November 5, 2022, and R.J. Spiegel will become a Bar Mitzvah on March 18, 2023.

RJ's Mitzvah project is included in this newsletter, and will take place on Thursday, August 25. (Please see page 11). In a future newsletter you will learn about Jonah's Mitzvah project.

Articles in both RJ's and Jonah's own words will acquaint the congregation with these two amazing students. Look for them in future newsletters. We know our synagogue family will be there to support these young men's efforts.

Remember that CBS Religious School begins on August 21, 2022 at 8:30 AM. See you soon.

RITUAL Report

Jackie Williams, Ritual Chairperson

Thank you to all the members who led services during the month of July while the Cantor was on vacation: Joan Zak on July 1, Bob Stone on July 8, Joan Zak on July 15, Dennis Itzkowitz assisted by RJ Spiegel on July 22 and Jessi Rouman on July 29. It is very much appreciated. In August when the Cantor is back Joan Zak will lead on August 12 and Tanya, Rebecca, and RJ Spiegel will lead on August 19.

High Holidays will be here before you know it. David Severson will be calling congregants to ask if they can volunteer to read English or read Torah portions. We'd love to see congregants on the Bimah during the holidays.

Shabbat Under the Stars will take place on Friday, September 2 in our backyard (Bruce and Jackie Williams' home). See flier on page 23. This has always been a fun Shabbat. Bring your chairs or a blanket to sit on. We will have a very nice Oneg.

Most everything you need to know about the day can be found on the internet.

The following site was one that caught my eye and has a straightforward approach:

Please enjoy the chanting of Chapter 5, chosen randomly, of Eicha (Book of Lamentations), which is read on Tisha B'Av, and found on YouTube by a Rabbi in Columbus, OH.

<https://youtu.be/zdrck65DWns>

After Tisha B'Av, comes the preparation for the month of Elul. (Rosh Hashana comes at the end of September and we must be ready!) As we look inwardly at ourselves, we think about how we did this past year. How do we make amends with people around us including family, friends, and co-workers? How will we improve ourselves in the coming year? Which Middot (our attributes) need improving? How will we help ourselves? More on that in my August (included in this newsletter) and September articles so stay tuned.

An early Shabbat Shalom and may you all have a meaningful Shabbat and upcoming Tisha B'Av.

at that end. He raised money to fund the transports of the children and the 50 pound per child guarantee demanded by the British government to fund the children's eventual departure from Britain. He had to find British families willing to care for the refugee children. By day, Winton worked at his regular job on the Stock Exchange, and then devoted late afternoons and evenings to his rescue efforts. He made a great effort to raise money and find foster homes to bring as many children as possible to safety.

The first transport of children organized by Winton left Prague by plane for London on March 14, 1939, the day before the Germans occupied the Czech lands. After the Germans established a Protectorate in the Czech provinces of Bohemia and Moravia, Winton organized seven additional transports that departed by rail from Prague and across Germany to the Atlantic Coast. They continued the journey by ship across the English Channel to Britain. At the train station in London, British foster parents waited to collect the children. The last trainload of children left Prague on August 2, 1939. Rescue activities ceased when Germany invaded Poland and Britain declared war against Germany in early September 1939.

The total number of children rescued through Winton's efforts is not certain. According to a scrapbook he kept, 664 children came to Great Britain on transports that he organized. In the research compiled for the documentary "The Power of Good: Nicholas Winton," aired on Czech television in 2002, researchers identified five additional persons who entered Britain on a Winton-financed transport, bringing the official number to 669 children. The available information indicates that some children who were rescued have never been identified.

After the war, Nicholas Winton's rescue efforts remained virtually unknown. It was not until 1988, when his wife Grete found a scrapbook from 1939 with all the children's photos and a complete list of names, that Winton's rescue efforts became known.

There are around 6000 people in the world today who owe their lives to Nicholas Winton. They are the descendants of a group of refugee children rescued by him from the Nazi threat in 1939. Some of them know of his existence and the part he played in their history, many others do not. It was a short event in his life but a critical one for those whose lives were saved. For him that intervention was over in a flash and other adventures supplanted it. Only much later did this episode re-emerge in his life and ever since has brought him visitors from all over the world anxious to learn his story.

Winton since received a letter of thanks from the late Ezer Weizman, former president of the State of Israel, and was made an honorary citizen of Prague in the independent Czech Republic. In 2002, Winton received a knighthood from Queen Elizabeth II for his services to humanity.

CHANGE IN CREDIT CARD AND PAYPAL POLICY

Bob Stone, Treasurer

At the Board meeting on July 10, 2022, I showed the attending members that in the last fiscal year we paid over $1200 in credit card and PayPal fees. Every time a payment is made by credit card or via Paypal, it is reduced by 3.5% or more as a fee for the service. As a result, the Board passed a resolution that beginning August 1, 2022 there will be a 3% service charge added to payments received by credit card and a 3% reduction in the amount credited as a payment if paid via Paypal. As our expenses have increased, we need to cut fees as much as we can. Thank you for your understanding.

MITZVAH PROJECT: Thursday, August 25 Honor our 13 Fallen

Who were killed in the suicide bombing on August 25, 2021 at the airport in Kabul, Afghanistan
by RJ Spiegel

My name is RJ Spiegel, and I am studying to become a Bar Mitzvah (Son of the Commandments). I will become a Jewish adult, accepting the honors, responsibilities, and roles in the Jewish faith. Part of the process for becoming a Bar Mitzvah at CBS of Corona is to complete a Mitzvah Project, meaning acts of good deeds and service to better our community.

I have chosen to “honor our 13 fallen” as my project. One year ago, these American soldiers were killed in Kabul Afghanistan and many people pledged to NEVER FORGET. A few weeks ago, I had dinner with Mr. Steve Nikoui (the father of Kareem Nikoui) and he seemed very sad, and mentioned that it has been almost a year since his son was killed.

In our Jewish faith, we hold Yahrzeit annually to remember our beloved family members who have passed. Although these soldiers were not Jewish, I am choosing to host a community event where everyone can remember our fallen 13 soldiers. This event will be held on the evening prior to their death. Just like our holidays, and Shabbat, we begin to celebrate or acknowledge those special occasions at sundown, the eve of the remembrance.

On Thursday, August 25, we will be gathering all those who wish to “honor our fallen 13.”

I am seeking donations, as there will be some costs to host this community event. We are reaching out to all 13 families (some are not local) to see if they wish to attend. This means that we may have the expenses of transportation and hotel rooms. Donations are appreciated to cover these expenses.

The event will begin on Thursday, August 25 at 6 PM at the George Ingalls Veterans Memorial Plaza in Norco California. We will have various speakers. Cantor Shapiro will open and close the ceremony. We will have a candlelight vigil to honor our fallen 13 soldiers. Immediately following will be a 21-gun salute and playing of Taps.

For more information on how you can support, please email: Honor13Fallen@gmail.com.

CBS BOOK Club

In her twenties, Belle da Costa Greene is hired by J. P. Morgan to curate a collection of rare manuscripts, books, and artwork for his newly built Pierpont Morgan Library. Belle becomes a fixture in New York City society and one of the most powerful people in the art and book world, known for her impeccable taste and shrewd negotiating for critical works as she helps create a world-class collection.

But Belle has a secret, one she must protect at all costs. She was born not Belle da Costa Greene but Belle Marion Greener. She is the daughter of Richard Greener, the first Black graduate of Harvard and a well-known advocate for equality. Belle's complexion isn't dark because of her alleged Portuguese heritage that lets her pass as white—her complexion is dark because she is African American.

The Personal Librarian tells the story of an extraordinary woman, famous for her intellect, style, and wit, and shares the lengths she must go to - for the protection of her family and her legacy - To preserve her carefully crafted white identity in the racist world in which she lives.

The CBS Book Club will meet on ZOOM at 5:30 PM
Monday, August 22, 2022, to discuss the very interesting book.

LUNCH—A PERFECT “GET BETTER”

Knowing Eileen Taks, one of our CBS members, was recouping from surgery, Paula Fogel came up with the idea to gather other ladies from CBS to meet up for lunch—it turned out to be a perfect “Get Better” antidote. Pictured from l-r are Marci Rouman, Bryn Barkan, Paula Fogel, Renee Miller, Eileen Taks, and Gail Koren.
