Cantor's Corner by Cantor Bruce Shapiro HAPPY NEW YEAR!

... "AND SO MAY IT BE WRITTEN"

Have an "easy fast". "Chag Sameach!" "beating of the willows", "Simchat Torah".

October this year is a month of transition. We begin our month with Yom Kippur, our "Day of Atonement". We say to each other, "have an easy fast" or if not fasting we can say in Yiddush, "Gut Yontiff" (good holiday), or "G'mar Hatima Tova" (so may it be written).

The meal before we start our fast is supposed to be celebratory. I sometimes struggle with this concept as I know most likely I will not eat or drink anything for 25 or 26 hours from the time I start. So, what's to celebrate? If I want to be an optimist, I could just be happy to have a meal that will last that long even though I will be hungry and most likely thirsty around noon the following day!

If you ask me, the celebratory meal is the one where we “break” the “fast” (in Yiddish, “opfastn”) in the evening, right? In the olden days, dinner used to be eaten earlier, so there was a longer time until the next meal. Thus “Breakfast” was born!

Ultimately, the fast allows me to focus on myself and my relationship with others. Inward we go, looking for answers about connections, commandments (Mitzvot), and inner spirituality. How do I bring/help myself to become a better version of me while thinking about all that?

We continue after Yom Kippur and all the self-reflection, soul and spiritual care to remember the times when the Israelites were in the “agriculture business”. Our people spent 8 days in a Sukkah, temporary huts, to protect us from the sun and keep us cool as they were open. During this time of Sukkot (Feast of Tabernacles or Booths), we shake the Lulav and Esrog (Etrog in modern Hebrew pronunciation) to remind us that together we can be a stronger and united people, of what was provided to the people in the desert to survive, and that all people should look forward to an amazing future in the service of The One.

All of this is followed by the “beating of the willows” and our prayers change to ask for “rain in our season”. Following this change over, we then are ready to receive and rejoice with the Torah on Simchat Torah, which is October 17. Come join in the fun as we dance with the Torahs as everyone can have an Aliyah!

We are hoping for a June 2024 Adult B’Nai Mitzvah right here at CBS. If you are interested in joining our group, being a teacher, or taking part in some way, please contact me via email, phone, or in person at services. Remember TEAM...Together We Achieve More! Lastly, “alone we can do so little, together we can do so much!”

I am looking forward to seeing you all in person or on Zoom soon! Make a visit on any Friday evening for Erev Shabbat services or once per month usually on the 3rd Shabbat morning of the month (October 22 at 9 AM) for Torah Study (for 45 minutes) with morning services following. Please continue to stay healthy.

Wishing your family and you a “G’Mar Hatima Tova U’mitukah”. And so may it be written and sealed in the Book of Life for a Happy and Sweet New Year!

President's Message

The British Queen

and connection to the Jewish Community

Queen Elizabeth II, who sat on the throne for 70 years until her recent death, enjoyed a long and warm relationship with the British Jewish community, from the start of her reign in 1952 through her final years.

In May 1952, just several months after the death of her father, King George VI, the queen met with the British chief rabbi and leaders of the British Jewish community. A month later, Jewish officials and the Israeli ambassador were at her coronation at Westminster Abbey.

Marking her platinum jubilee in June, Marie van der Zyl, the president of the Board of Deputies of British Jews, wrote that Queen Elizabeth has “been a rock for the nation” and has cultivated “a long history of involvement with the Jewish community.”

Throughout her decades as the UK's head of state, Queen Elizabeth cultivated amicable ties with Jewish communal figures as well as cordial relations with Israeli leaders. But though she paid official visits to dozens of countries throughout her tenure, she never visited the State of Israel.

In fact, no member of the royal family ever visited Israel in an official capacity until 2018, when Prince William arrived in the Jewish state on an unprecedented official visit, lifting the unofficial boycott.

Prince Philip made a personal visit to Israel in 1994 to honor his mother, Princess Alice of Greece, who is buried on the Mount of Olives in Jerusalem. Prince Charles visited Israel in 1995 and 2016 to attend the funerals of Yitzhak Rabin and Shimon Peres. Those stays were not, however, official royal visits.

The decades-long refusal of the royal family to undertake an official visit to the State of Israel – while having no such hesitations over trips to authoritarian monarchies such as Saudi Arabia and Qatar – irked many Israeli politicians and members of the British Jewish community.

An anonymous British government official told The Telegraph in 2015 that “until there is a settlement between Israel and the Palestinian Authority, the royal family can't really go there.” Though many British leaders, including prime ministers, had paid visits to the Jewish state, the official claimed that “In Israel so much politics is caught up in the land itself that it's best to avoid those complications altogether by not going there.”

Despite the snub, the queen still enjoyed close ties to and loyalty from British Jews, and also met with many visiting Israeli dignitaries during her decades on the throne.

When she turned 90 in 2016, the former UK chief rabbi, Lord Jonathan Sachs, praised the queen as someone “whose greatness speaks across ethnic and religious divides... Her contribution to British society is immeasurable and the respect she has shown for all religions has enriched our lives.”

Indeed, British Jews largely expressed fealty and gratitude to the queen, expressing any displeasure or criticism behind closed doors. In 1972, British Jews vowed to plant one million trees in Israel to honor the queen’s 25th wedding anniversary to Prince Philip.

During the decades in which members of the royal family refused to travel to Israel, the queen hosted many Israeli leaders in the UK, including then-president Ephraim Katzir in 1976. In 2008, then-president Peres was knighted by Queen Elizabeth upon the invitation of the British government.

The second-ever Israeli envoy to the UK, Eliahu Eilat, was granted a rare sit-down dinner and overnight visit with the queen at Windsor Castle in 1959.

In 2000, the queen inaugurated Britain’s first permanent memorial to the Holocaust, although a year later she skipped attending the nation’s first-ever official Holocaust Memorial Day due to scheduling restraints, sending Prince Charles instead. She served as the patron of the UK Holocaust Memorial Day Trust from its establishment in 2005 until she passed it on to Prince Charles in 2015.

While the royal family was shaken after a

British tabloid released video footage of a 7-year-old Elizabeth giving a Nazi salute in 1933 or 1934, British Jewry largely defended the monarch.

“I don’t think any criticism of a 7-year-old child would be remotely appropriate and I don’t intend to make any,” Arkush said when the footage was revealed in 2015. “I do not think for one moment that it would be appropriate for me to suggest that the full horror of Nazi Germany was known at that point.”

In 1996, she visited and laid a wreath at a Jewish memorial at Umschlagplatz in Warsaw, where Jews were rounded up and transported to the Treblinka extermination camp.

It was not until almost two decades later that she did visit a Nazi concentration camp. On her last official foreign trip before her death, Queen Elizabeth traveled to Germany in 2015, visiting Berlin, Frankfurt and Celle. While it was her fifth state trip to Germany, the queen made her first ever visit to a concentration camp, stopping to lay a wreath at Bergen-Belsen and meet with Holocaust survivors at the site.

After listening to their stories she responded: “It must have been horrific.”

Simchat Torah Fun!

The celebration of Simchat Torah occurs during the evening service at the synagogue. On this holiday, all the Torah scrolls are taken out of the ark and are read from in the evening. When the ark is opened, the congregants leave their seats to sing and dance with the Torahs. It is a fun and joyful celebration. Please join us at CBS on Monday, October 17, at 7:00 PM.

Part of our education program includes keeping our students safe. Pictured below is CBS Vice President Joan Jacobs discussing the "Stop the Bleed" kits with the students.

RITUAL

Report

Jackie Williams, Ritual Chairperson

Thank you to the following wonderful congregants who led services during the month of September: Jessi Rouman, RJ Spiegel and Joan Zak. In October, it will be Joan Zak on October 14 and Zophia Lindenbaum on October 28. Thank you all very much.

Unfortunately, we had to cancel Shabbat Under the Stars in September because of the heat. We have moved it to October 7 at 6:30 PM. Please bring a chair and or a blanket. It will be in our backyard at 953 Armata Dr., Corona, 92881. Bruce and I hope to see everyone there.

The High Holy Days are here. We have already celebrated Rosh Hashanah and soon we will celebrate Yom Kippur, Sukkot, Shemini Atzeret and Simchat Torah.

Sadly, Sol Bilgrei, husband of Myra, passed away on September 15. Friends of the Bilgrei's lovingly came forward to host the Meal of Condolence at the synagogue. Thanks goes to Cheryl and Joel Friedberg, Joan Jacobs, Gail and Mark Koren, Marci and Bruce Rouman, Paula Fogel, Renee Miller, and Jackie and Bruce Williams.

Meet Jonah Fusco

Hi, my name is Jonah Fusco. I am 13 years old and my Bar Mitzvah is coming up in November. I am an 8th grader at El Cerrito Middle School. It is my first year there because my original middle school was taken over by the elementary school due to overpopulation. I like to play Subway Surfers because it is a fun hand-skill game and it has trains in it. How you play it is that you run from a railroad guard, and park your car over different trains either stopped or going the other direction.

My wish for the USA is that it would move to the metric system, get a high speed rail system and completely move to sustainable energy. When I'm an adult, I want to move out of California because of high prices, wildfires and traffic. Anyways, this is my paragraph for the newsletter, see ya!

Synagogue Remembers

MEL GOLDMAN

FATHER, BUSINESSMAN, VETERAN, FRIEND

With a heavy heart, our membership has learned of the sudden passing of Mel Goldman. Mel and his beloved wife, June will be united in heaven.

They have two daughters, Stacy Pineiros and Cindy Williams and four grandchildren which always brought a smile to Mel.

Mel was an amazing man who lived a really good life surrounded by many friends and those who loved him. Mel was born in the Bronx, NY and had a fraternal twin brother. Six years later, his mother had a second set of fraternal twins, and along came his sister and another brother. After high school he enlisted in the Air Force where he worked as a weapon control systems mechanic on fighter jets. After leaving the Air Force, he got to spend 6 months in Thule, Greenland as a Maintenance technician with RCA. He loved to boast that he led the first Passover Seder in freezing temperatures while stationed up there. At age 28 he met his bride to be, June. They bought their first house in New Jersey where they had two daughters. In 1976 they moved to California where they spent the next 27 years in Anaheim Hills. Mel had his own electronics business for many years and even worked for Delta Airlines overseeing the computer division. Later came a few other managerial positions.

Eventually Mel and June moved out to Corona in 2003 to be closer to their adult children, Stacy and Cindy and of course their grandchildren, Jake, Chelsea, Lindsay, and Amanda and eventually Mel and June happily retired.

All that knew Mel knew that he had a great sense of humor and loved to joke around. Mel was easy going and loved his food served hot! He absolutely adored his family and was an amazing husband, father, and grandfather. He was always there to lend a helping hand and would do anything for his family. Mel will be missed deeply.

Funeral services will be Monday, October 3 at 10AM at Pierce Bros Crestlawn Mortuary 11500 Arlington Ave. Riverside, CA 92505.

A meal of condolence is being arranged by Jackie Williams and will be at the synagogue immediately following the service.

On behalf of the Board of Directors and the entire membership, condolences are extended to Stacy and Cindy and their families during this most difficult time.

OCTOBER BOOK SELECTION

The Other Einstein offers us a window into a brilliant, fascinating woman whose light was lost in Einstein's enormous shadow. This is the story of Einstein's wife, a brilliant physicist in her own right, whose contribution to the special theory of relativity is hotly debated and may have been inspired by her own profound and very personal insight.

Mitza Maric has always been a little different from other girls. Most 20-year-olds are wives by now, not studying physics at an elite Zurich university with only male students trying to outdo her clever calculations. But Mitza is smart enough to know that, for her, math is an easier path than marriage. And then fellow student Albert Einstein takes an interest in her, and the world turns sideways. Theirs becomes a partnership of the mind and of the heart, but there might not be room for more than one genius in a marriage.

We look forward to seeing you on ZOOM 5:30 October 24, 2022 for a spirited discussion on “Einstein”

DECEMBER BOOK SELECTION

The White Rose tells the story of Hans Scholl and Sophie Scholl, who in 1942 led a small underground organization of German students and professors to oppose the atrocities committed by Hitler and the Nazi Party. They named their group the White Rose, and they distributed leaflets denouncing the Nazi regime. Sophie, Hans, and a third student were caught and executed.

Written by Inge Scholl (Hans' and Sophie's sister), The White Rose features letters, diary excerpts, photographs of Hans and Sophie, transcriptions of the leaflets, and accounts of the trial and execution. This is a gripping account of courage and morality.

We will ZOOM December 12, 2022 at 5:30 PM to discuss Munich

Legacy AWARDS LUNCHEON

The little synagogue that “could.” That is how many people in the greater Corona and Los Angeles Jewish communities regard Congregation Beth Shalom. Our synagogue has purchased at least seven groves of 1,000 trees each; that is seven thousand trees purchased from The Jewish National Fund and all but a few hundred sold in our Fund A Need program over the years during our luncheons. We will be buying our eighth grove for this year’s Legacy Luncheon—so mark your calendars and save the date. The 16th Annual Legacy Luncheon will be held on Sunday, April 23, 2023, at Eagle Glen Golf Club so mark your calendars and save the date. All monies raised from the event will be used toward our annual community education programs as well as much needed operating expenses.

I want to take this opportunity to announce the 2023 Legacy Honorees:

The CBS Legacy Award is awarded to a individuals involved in the synagogue who exemplify the traditions of Jewish life and function as role models for future generations. These individuals have a high level of commitment to the CBS community. This year we will be honoring two CBS families with the Legacy Award. The first family is Joan Zak and Dennis Brooks, who demonstrate that “high level of commitment” to the CBS community in so many areas. Joan has been an integral part in running Zoom services, developing power points to make the services “user friendly,” not to mention Joan’s development of CBS’ Adult Education Program. Dennis Brooks has played an integral part in photographing our yearly Legacy Luncheon with his wonderful expertise in taking the perfect group photo. The second family is Paula and Mark Fogel. These CBS Honorees are supportive of all of CBS’ efforts across so many areas of synagogue life. Both are the first to step up to help anywhere they are needed. Paula, baker extraordinaire, has graced our meals and onegs with goodies from her kitchen and Mark is an integral part of the CBS Brotherhood, playing poker and involving himself in many volunteer efforts with CBS.

The Guardian of Righteousness Award (the Shomer Tzedek Award) is being awarded to Katie Moore, founder of ABC Hopes. Katie Moore has a passion for people. Her love for others is evident in everything she does. Katie's younger brother, Christopher, was born with Down's Syndrome. Katie was concerned that because of his disability, Christopher might be treated differently than other people, so Katie created a special non-profit with the focus on individuals with disabilities. The non-profit originated in Orange County; however, in 2022, they relocated to their new facility in Corona. During the past several years, ABC Hopes, under Katie's direction, has blossomed into a stable and integral part of the Corona community.

The Business Partner Award (Shatuf Tzedek Award) is being presented to Silver Dollar Pancake House, owners Robert and Diana Hernandez. This business has been known as an icon in the Corona community. Labeled the oldest restaurant in the area, the Hernandez family, with their daughter, Jennifer, constantly help others, from non-profits to charities and the homeless in the Corona community. The Silver Dollar Pancake House has been a long-time supporter of our Legacy Luncheon.

We look to all of you to help the Legacy Committee secure donations for our ever-popular Silent Auction as well as becoming table sponsors for the event. We need 100% participation from all of you to make the Legacy Luncheon a success.

For more information and answers to your questions about the Legacy Luncheon, please contact Legacy Luncheon Co-Chairs Renee Miller at (909) 228-5945 or Marci Rouman at (951) 733-3980.
