CANTOR'S MESSAGE

One of my favorite Chagim is Purim. Pur means "lots" which determined the "day of destruction". This is another story about GOOD triumphing over EVIL. We get to dress up in costumes and this year the theme is "Super Heroes". Be sure to wear your outfit!

We are commanded to blot out the name of Amalek of which Haman (BOOooo!) the evil "clown" is a descendant of in the story. This is a story about the survival of a people during the 5th Century, BCE. As the Chief Minister, he set the date of destruction and built gallows for Mordechai our hero! In the end, it was Haman and his 10 sons who ended up on the gallows. Esther was brave and went before the King and told him about the evil plan and edict allowing the Jews to attack their

SHABBAT HAGADOL: THE GREAT SHABBAT AT CONGREGATION BETH SHALOM, CORONA

Join Cantor Bruce Shapiro as Congregation Beth Shalom welcomes special guest Carl Cedar on Friday, March 31, for Erev Shabbat Services beginning at 7 PM.

Carl brings his joy of music and Judaism to each and every service. He began his music career at age 12 when his band played every b'nai mitzvah party of his Long Island Hebrew school graduating class. Carl went on to study music at SUNY@Buffalo. He moved West to join the faculty of the Musicians Institute in Hollywood. He became a Music Supervisor and Orchestrator at Universal Studios for the TV show "Knight Rider". Shortly thereafter, he met his soulmate Nancy and they moved to "The OC" to raise their two beautiful boys, Andrew and David. For the past 30 years, Carl has worked as a Music Producer for Walt Disney Live Entertainment based at Disneyland.

In addition to leading services at Congregation B'nai Israel in Tustin, he teaches music and tefillah at their Religious School with a passion for transmitting the joy of Jewish music to the great kids of CBI.

enemies on that day (Adar 13). After the victory, a day of celebration was declared and was named Purim!

On Monday, March 6, beginning at 6 PM we will celebrate as a community the jolliest of holidays, Purim! Come for the Spiel...stay for dessert!

Shabbat Parah falls the week before RJ Spiegel's Bar Mitzvah! In Parasha Ki Tissa, Moses shatters the tablets containing the 10 Commandments into many pieces when he sees the Israelites (not all of them) idolizing the Golden Calf. The breaking of the tablets reminds us that when we are not sure about an action we should take, that we should take pause to determine what we should do. Although not all Israelites bowed down to the calf, was it enough? Should they have spoken up to the others and said, "stop this erratic behavior while our beloved Moses is on the mountain!"

Ultimately, we all experience events that are overwhelming, cause stress, or pain. If we take pause to survey our situation, we may see in that moment, the "broken shards" of those tablets that we can use to make us complete or help us make a better decision!

Our next Torah study (about 45 minutes) will be on Saturday morning, March 25, at 9 AM on Zoom only, where we will study the first portion in the book of Leviticus—Vayikra. On Saturday, April 22 at 9 AM will be a double portion, Tazria/Metzora. Adding one more item to your Jewish "To Do" list for 5783? This is an easy one and the discussions are lively regardless of the level of your current Torah understanding. It is amazing how we add our own "spark" to every conversation held and each question asked! (Join on Zoom or in person.)

Adon Olam, Master of the Universe, Purim reminds us that Passover is coming soon. Allow us the strength to "see" beyond what is directly in front of us. If an opportunity presents itself to improve our situation, may we have the courage to accept it. May we also have the energy and strength to speak up for those who cannot speak for themselves.

Remember: "Sometimes you win, and sometimes you learn."

Questions to ponder?

- 1) In Exodus, Chapter 30, (page 523 in the Etz Chaim), what is a palindrome and provide the meaning of the example on the bottom of the page?
- 2) Today, what is an example of a "Golden Calf"?
- 3) Why did everyone have to pay ½ shekel on Purim? (Page 524, bottom)
- 4) The first two students who email me the answers to questions number 1,2, and 3 will be provided a $ 10 Target Card. This includes the confirmation class. 3mshapiro@cox.net

ALL THE THINGS YOU WANTED TO KNOW ABOUT LOX—BUT AFRAID TO ASK

smoked varieties, like Nova, Western Nova, Irish and Scottish smoked salmons.

Josh Russ Tupper, the fourth generation owner of the iconic Russ & Daughters, recently explained to Bon Appetit that cold smoked fish, like Nova, is the most popular, with orders for lox trailing far behind, typically ordered by older clientele.

Still curious? Here's a guide to your smoked and salted salmon:

LOX: Salmon (usually the belly) that's soaked in a salty brine and never cooked. Served in thin, silky slices and usually paired with cream cheese on a bagel.

You always wanted to know the different kinds of Lox?

Have you ever ordered lox and wondered, wait, what exactly is lox? You'll hear orders for lox and cream cheese on bagels, but it's often not actually lox—it's smoked salmon. If you're confused about lox, you're not alone.

To start with, lox is brined salmon. It's basically pickled. And although the word lox looks like it came out of a Dr. Seuss book (fox in sox with lox?), it's derived from the Yiddish word laks, which comes from the German word for salmon, lachs.

The Jewish tradition of lox began in Medieval Germany, where preserving fish of all kinds in brine was commonplace. Because salmon was so expensive, Jews made lox with herring or carp. During those times, lox would sit in a brine of salt and water for 3-6 months. As families migrated from Germany to other parts of Europe, lox-making continued.

In the mid to late 1800s German immigrants in New York City peddled their version of brined fish, but it wasn't until the Jewish immigrants arrived that lox became the bagel topping that we know and love. With an abundance of salmon from the Pacific Northwest, they began making lox with the belly of salmon, a delicacy that was finally affordable and accessible.

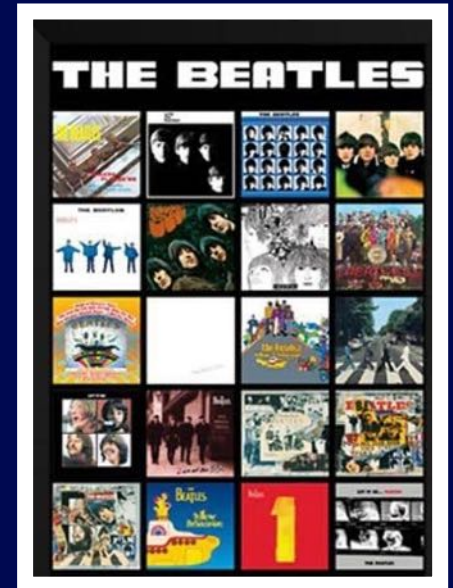

As soon as refrigeration became widespread, preserving methods like brining and pickling were no longer as necessary. Smoked fish became the new favorite. What was once the only fish game in town was now joined by cold-

Gravlax: Salmon that's covered in salt and herbs for 3-5 days, then rinsed and sliced thinly. A Scandinavian method of preparing lox.

Nova Lox: Salmon soaked in a brine, like lox, and later cold-smoked at 80 degrees for a few days. It's not cooked, so it retains a silky smooth texture and translucent pink color. Nova refers to the place it's from—Nova Scotia—often times from the Gaspé region. There are several varieties of Nova Lox, including Western Nova (Wild Pacific Salmon), Norwegian smoked salmon (mildly smoky), and Scottish smoked salmon (strongest smoke flavor)

Hot-Smoked

Salmon: Also known as kippered salmon, which is first brined and then smoked at 130-140 degrees for a few hours. It's smoky and has the flaky, moist texture of cooked salmon.

BREAKFAST / WORLD WIDE WRAP / ART

Our wonderful Brotherhood organization came through once again with a fabulous breakfast they hosted just prior to our annual World Wide Wrap.

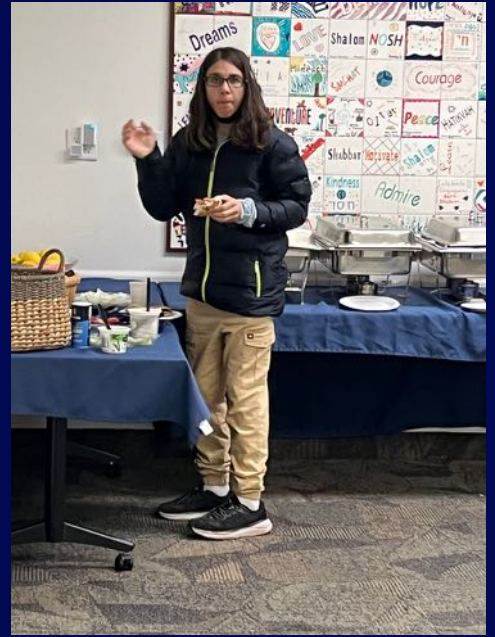

Cantor Shapiro brought us this fabulous program the first year he was our spiritual leader, and we have continued the tradition. Thank you Cantor Shapiro, Matt Shapiro and RJ Spiegel for assisting everyone in laying tefillin.

This year, we added a special judging of recycled artwork created by the Confirmation students and others at the synagogue.

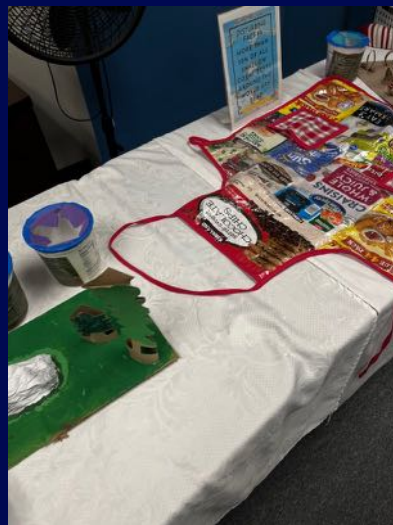

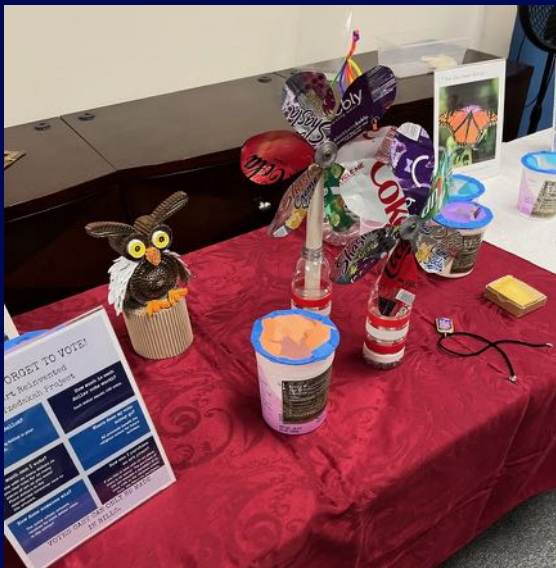

The World Wide Wrap is an effort organized by the Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs Inc. Known by its initials the F.J.M.C., (Federation of Jewish Men's Clubs) is an international umbrella organization for a confederation of approximately 200 men's auxiliaries serving more than 20,000 men around the globe. In North America, chapters are found throughout the United States and Canada. The influence of FJMC's programs and contributions is felt worldwide. FJMC's mission is to involve men in Jewish life. Their programs have a profound impact on our congregations, our youth, world Jewry, and, when you consider the indirect impact of our Shomrei Ha'aretz environmental programs, all of humanity.

Legacy AWARDS LUNCHEON

The little synagogue that “could.” That is how many people in the greater Corona and Los Angeles Jewish communities regard Congregation Beth Shalom. Our synagogue has purchased at least seven groves of 1,000 trees each; that is seven thousand trees purchased from The Jewish National Fund and all but a few hundred sold in our Fund A Need program over the years during our luncheons. We will be buying our eighth grove for this year’s Legacy Luncheon. The 16th Annual Legacy Luncheon will be held on Sunday, April 23, 2023, at Eagle Glen Golf Club. All money raised from the event will be used toward our regular community education programs as well as much needed operating expenses.

Over the prior months, we have highlighted each of our honorees. These amazing individuals truly exemplify our purpose and the meaning of each award—please enjoy reading about them. Remember this is our major, annual fundraiser. Your generous sponsorships, ticket purchases and donations for our auction are greatly appreciated!

The CBS Legacy Award is awarded to individuals involved in the synagogue who exemplify the traditions of Jewish life and function as role models for future generations. These individuals have a high level of commitment to the CBS community. This year we will be honoring two CBS families with the Legacy Award. The first family is Joan Zak and Dennis Brooks, who demonstrate that “high level of commitment” to the CBS community in so many areas. Joan has been an integral part in running Zoom services, developing power points to make the services “user friendly,” not to mention Joan’s development of CBS’ Adult Education Program. Dennis Brooks has played an integral part in photographing our yearly Legacy Luncheon with his wonderful expertise in taking the perfect group photo. The second family is Paula and Mark Fogel. These CBS Honorees are supportive of all of CBS’ efforts across so many areas of synagogue life. Both are the first to step up to help anywhere they are needed. Paula, baker extraordinaire, has graced our meals and onegs with goodies from her kitchen and Mark is an integral part of the CBS Brotherhood, playing poker and involving himself in many volunteer efforts with CBS.

The Guardian of Righteousness Award (the Shomer Tzedek Award) is being awarded to Katie Moore, founder of ABC Hopes. Katie Moore has a passion for people. Her love for others is evident in everything she does. Katie's younger brother, Christopher, was born with Down Syndrome. She was concerned that because of his disability, Christopher might be treated differently than other people, so Katie created a special non-profit with the focus on individuals with disabilities. The non-profit originated in Orange County; however, in 2022, they relocated to their new facility in Corona. During the past several years, ABC Hopes, under Katie's direction, has blossomed into a stable and integral part of the Corona community.

The Hernandez Family owners of Silver Dollar Pancake House

The Business Partner Award (Shatuf Tzedek Award) is being presented to Silver Dollar Pancake House owners Robert and Diana Hernandez. This business has been known as an icon in the Corona community. Labeled the oldest restaurant in the area, the Hernandez family, with their daughter, Jennifer, constantly help others, from non-profits to charities and the homeless in the Corona community. The Silver Dollar Pancake House has been a long-time supporter of our Legacy Luncheon.

Thank you to our incredible committee, and the many members of our synagogue and business community that have donated items. You still have time to purchase tickets or sponsor a table so you and your family and friend can attend. If you cannot attend, we would be honored to receive a donation to this event which helps our synagogue.

Our young students are very concerned about the planet we are leaving for them. They are learning and experimenting on ways they can contribute. One very important step they have taken is RECYCLING.

Our Oneg room, the room between the sanctuary and the kitchen, has RECYCLING containers for empty plastic bottles (and caps), glass bottles and cans. Please do not throw these items in the trash. They are brought to a recycling center. The money goes to our school.

EDUCATION Report

Marci Rouman, Education Director

Purim is definitely a busy time of year at any synagogue religious school. It is definitely so at CBS! However, it is also fun for the students. It is the most fun out of the entire school year. At this time, all of the things that we are working on are coming together. Our students and teachers are busy rehearsing our Purim Spiel. Lots of practice is necessary! Our Mishloach Manot fundraiser is finishing up as well. Our congregation has been extremely generous with their donations. The CBS Religious school appreciates this. The students are now busy doing their part by decorating the Purim boxes and making them beautiful. Our parents and teachers will then fill the boxes with all the goodies, and we will distribute them on March 6 at the Purim Spiel.

Marci Rouman, Education Director

Let's give a special thank you to all of our generous donors. Thanks for caring about our kids!

Trees Planted In The Holy Land

Over 100 years ago, Jewish National Fund-USA began to replenish the native vegetation of the Holy Land that had disappeared or been destroyed. The Bible tells us that God originally filled the land with olive, pine, cypress, tamarisk, acacia, and carob trees. These are the species that we plant today to renew and nurture the land.

Send a beautiful personalized tree certificate to your family, friends, or loved ones, to show your expression of sympathy or in recognition of a special occasion.

Planting trees in Israel is a beautiful way to show you care. Plant three trees for a ring of trees ($60), five trees for a circle ($95), and ten trees for an orchard ($180).

There's always a reason to plant trees:

Anniversary, Bar/Bat Mitzvah, Birthday, Congratulations, Father's Day, For Your Pet, Get Well, Graduation, In Honor Of, In Memory Of, Mother's Day, New Baby, New Year/Rosh Hashanah, Retirement, Thank You, Wedding, etc.

CBS will have a custom certificate recognizing your donation and mail it to your home, relative or friend.

MARCH & MAY BOOK SELECTIONS

A woman in her forties is a victim of a suicide bombing at a Jerusalem market. Her body lies nameless in a hospital morgue. She had apparently worked as a cleaning woman at a bakery, but there is no record of her employment. When a Jerusalem daily accuses the bakery of "gross negligence and inhumanity toward an employee," the bakery's owner, overwhelmed by guilt, entrusts the task of identifying and burying the victim to a human resources man. This man is at first reluctant to take on the job, but as the facts of the woman's life take shape—she was an engineer from the former Soviet Union, a non-Jew on a religious pilgrimage to Jerusalem, and, judging by an early photograph, beautiful—he yields to feelings of regret, atonement, and even love.

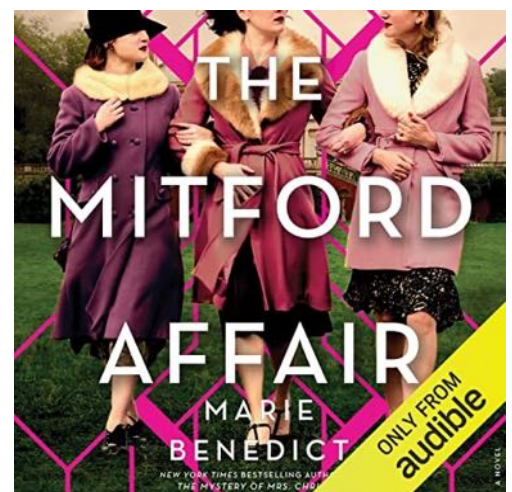

At once profoundly serious and highly entertaining, A. B. Yehoshua astonishes us with his masterly, often unexpected turns in the story and with his ability to get under the skin and into the soul of Israel today.

On March 27th at 5:30 PM the CBS Book Club will gather on ZOOM to review this fascinating book. Please Join Us

Between the World Wars, the six Mitford sisters—each more beautiful, brilliant, and eccentric than the next—dominate the English political, literary, and social scenes. Though they've weathered scandals before, the family falls into disarray when Diana divorces her wealthy husband to marry a fascist leader and Unity follows her sister's lead all the way to Munich, inciting rumors that she's become Hitler's mistress.

As the Nazis rise in power, novelist Nancy Mitford grows suspicious of her sisters' constant visits to Germany and the high-ranking fascist company they keep. When she overhears alarming conversations and uncovers disquieting documents, Nancy must make excruciating choices as Great Britain goes to war with Germany.

Probing the torrid political climate in the lead-up to World War II and the ways that seemingly sensible people can be sucked into radical action, The Mitford Affair follows Nancy's valiant efforts to stop the Nazis from taking over Great Britain, and the complicated choices she must make between the personal and the political.

KENNETH JACOBS WINS THE GOLDEN VETERAN AWARD FROM SAN FRANCISCO'S MASONIC LODGE 120

Fifty years is a long time; so is 100 years and 150 years. That is the number of years that Kenneth Jacobs' family has been active in San Francisco's Masonic Lodge 120.

On Thursday, February 2, Past Master Ken officially received his 50-year pin (The Golden Veteran Award) in Masonry during a ceremony in the San Francisco Lodge. The ceremony was filled with ritual and attended by approximately 100 people, including officers from the Grand Lodge of California, and our own Ethan Whittemore, a Masonic Lodge Brother.

Ken entertained those in attendance with anecdotes from his family's history in the Lodge, telling stories of his father's and grandfather's experiences there. He told the history of the Lodge from 1885 to 2023.

Ken's parents' first date was at a Masonic Picnic. Barely knowing each other, they won the door prize, a hand-knit baby blanket. They saved the blanket and used it for him several years later.

Ken presented several items of family memorabilia back to the Lodge, including his father's 25-year pin and grandfather's 50-year pin and certificates from both events, which were made of bronze and the size of a card to be carried in a wallet.

SNOW IN SO CAL FEB 2023 BRINGS CHILL, CRISP WEATHER AND BEAUTY

Sometimes, no words are necessary. It is often said, a picture paints a 1,000 words... this photo, captured by Dennis Brooks shows how beautiful nature is—on Saturday, February 25, Inland So CAL experienced tremendously unusual cold and rainy weather, resulting in snow capped mountains and this very unusual scenery, west of I-15 southern part of the greater Corona area.

WELCOME TO THE WORLD LOGAN JACE SHAPIRO

Thank you Mark and Paula for extending this 'relaxing' opportunity for Cantor and Marcy, though we understand that excitement of the game often leads to much energy, cheering, and perhaps some shouting!
