CANTOR'S MESSAGE

Some 50 years ago this month, I had my Bar Mitzvah. I share the same Bar Mitzvah portion with another member, David Severson. It is a privilege to have someone who can commiserate with me over this portion. When I was writing my Bar Mitzvah speech I wrote about scabs, infections, spreading of diseases, and other ailments that could happen to a person. Not exactly what a 13-year-old boy who was already traumatized by the whole situation of becoming a "Man" would want to talk about.

Well, come to find out, years later, that the portions Tazria-Metzorah are truly about the above and includes leprosy (which is not contagious) and so much more.

This is what I wanted to write about this month. "So much more!" As I have written about "doing G-d's will", "staying on the path", yadda, yadda, there is more to Judaism than following the "exact" words of a deity. Things, you know, ideas, have changed over the years. We look at things differently as adults than we do as children. This is truly the case here.

I now look at these portions in today's world. A divided world. Shrinking Jewish communities. Anti-Semitism is on the rise. Racism, wokism, "ism, ism". The concept here is about "ritual impurity". These two chapters speak to us about what comes out of the body, the last few chapters about what can go in (what we can eat)!

Tazria and Metzora look at blemishes. This year, I am looking at the blemishes on my own self. Lashon Harah (the evil tongue) is a blemish. Am I making the right decisions while on life's journey? Am I given a choice to practice Judaism or has it been thrust upon me? Aren't we all Jews by Choice even if we are born into this people? Is it up to each of you in "every generation" to decide which ancient laws make us “clean or unclean” and which make us “holy or unholy”.

Adon Olam, Master of the Universe as I ended my speech 50 years ago, “I am trying to carry on the tradition passed on to me, the fine heritage I have been blessed with. It is only by deeds of self-fulfillment that I could reward my current family and my ancestors no longer with us with the Nachas that all of my family richly deserve. I pray to The Source for the strength and wisdom to be able to work to the best of my ability for the betterment of mankind, for the fulfillment of my personal goals, and for the carrying out of my responsibilities as a devoted Son and Grandson, a good citizen, man, and a traditional Jew. And let us all say, Amen!”

Question: Can we learn to make good decisions by only studying Torah?

Chag Kasher Sameach (LaPesach)! A Happy Kosher Holiday (Passover)!

Our next Torah study (about 45 minutes) will be on Saturday morning, April 22 at 9 AM and will be a double portion, Tazria/Metzora. Adding one more item to your Jewish “To Do” list for 5783? This is an easy one and the discussions are lively regardless of the level of your current Torah understanding. It is amazing how we add our own “spark” to every conversation held and each question asked! (Join on Zoom or in person.)

Additional Questions to ponder?

1) In Leviticus, Chapter 11:12, (page 639 in the Etz Chaim), Which seafood is not kosher? Why? Provide one example (or more if you can) of seafood which qualifies as kosher.

2) In the Jewish community, why is a boy circumcised on the 8th day (page 630, Chapter 9, explanation at the bottom of the page)?

3) When you are in synagogue, how do you experience the presence of “The Source”, Hashem, or your recognition of our Deity?

4) The first two students who email me the answers to questions number 1,2, and 3 will be provided a $ 10 Target Card. This includes the confirmation class. 3mshapiro@cox.net There are no wrong answers to number 3!

President's Message

HOW TO PICK A HEBREW NAME

One of the joys of being "like a newborn baby" after the conversion is that you get to pick a Hebrew name--which is easier than you may think.

How I Chose My Hebrew Name

Converts have always selected Hebrew names that speak to them personally; Ruth has long been a favorite for obvious reasons. [Ruth, the grandmother of King David, is perhaps the Bible's best-known convert.] Most converts choose a biblical name. There are 2,800 personal names in the Hebrew Bible, and although fewer than 5 percent of those are in current use, all of them are yours to consider.

Many of the names in the Bible are theophoric, meaning that they exalt God. Names with the prefixes or suffixes el, eli, ya, and yahu all refer to the Holy One: Elisha—God is my salvation; Raphael—God has healed; Gamliel—God is my reward.

Others describe the circumstances of birth or a person's historical role. Chava, Hebrew for Eve, comes from the root word for "life," chai. The name Isaac comes from the word for "laughter" because his mother laughed to learn she would bear a child at her advanced age. The Bible also contains many names that refer to the natural universe: Deborah—bee; Jonah—dove; Tamar—palm tree. Many modern Israeli names continue this tradition: Tal and Tali—dew; Alon or Alona—oak; Oren—fir tree.

The lexicon of Hebrew names was not handed down from Mount Sinai; it has grown and changed throughout history and in response to local customs and fashions. Take, for example, the quintessentially Jewish name Esther, which is Persian in origin and shares its root with the fertility goddess, Ishtar. When the state of Israel was founded, in 1948, scores of new Hebrew names were invented and many old ones reclaimed. Our Cantor should be able to provide you with guidance, lists, even suggestions. Once you find one or two names that you especially like, you might ask our cantor to help you find some texts about the biblical character or name you've selected.

But you may not have to look any further than your own given name for inspiration. Some names translate beautifully. Regina or Gina, which means "queen," can give rise to Malka, which also means "queen." If your parents named you David, David (pronounced "Dah-veed") can be your Hebrew name as well. The biblical precedent for this practice is clear: Ruth did not change her name.

Many converts follow the contemporary American custom of selecting a Hebrew name

CONDOLENCES TO THE BAREMBAUM FAMILY

Dear CBS Friends and Families,

As a community we extend our condolences to the family of Morrie Barembaum on the passing of his beloved father, Abdon "Ab" Barembaum. He is survived by his four sons, (Jim, Meyer, Neil, and Morrie) four grandchildren (Rebecca, David, Amy, and Laura), and his second wife. Abdon passed away in Anaheim, CA after a brief illness.

Hamakom Y'Nahecm Etchem, B'Toch Shi'ar Aveilei Tzion Ve'Yerushalayim. May G-d comfort the Barembaum family amongst the mourners of Zion and Jerusalem.

May the memory of Yehudah Ben Moshe V'Gitel (Abdon Barembaum) endure as a blessing for all who knew and loved him.

Burial will be at Mt. Sinai Hollywood Hills cemetery located at 5950 Forest Lawn Drive, Los Angeles, CA. Further details will follow.

Other information in regard to donations in his memory will be forthcoming.

based on the initial letter or sound of their English name. Thus, Robert chooses Reuben, and Mary selects Miriam. But don't feel obligated by an accident of the alphabet. Since Jewish babies are usually named after parents or grandparents, some converts choose a name to honor someone in their own lives. Some rabbis feel strongly that the person you honor should be a Jewish teacher or mentor, or even a historical figure you find inspiring.

But there's no rule that you have to find an orthographic or historical connection between your name and your Hebrew name. This is an area of Jewish practice where there are few rules or customs, so find a name that feels right and has meaning for you. And you needn't limit yourself to just one name; it is increasingly common to choose two or even three. It sounds very impressive to be called to the Torah as Sarah Ora Hadass bat Avraham v'Sarah.

Legacy AWARDS LUNCHEON

The little synagogue that “could.” That is how many people in the greater Corona and Los Angeles Jewish communities regard Congregation Beth Shalom. Our synagogue has purchased at least seven groves of 1,000 trees each; that is seven thousand trees purchased from The Jewish National Fund and all but a few hundred sold in our Fund A Need program over the years during our luncheons. We will be buying our eighth grove for this year’s Legacy Luncheon. The 16th Annual Legacy Luncheon will be held on Sunday, April 23, 2023, at Eagle Glen Golf Club. All money raised from the event will be used toward our regular community education programs as well as much needed operating expenses.

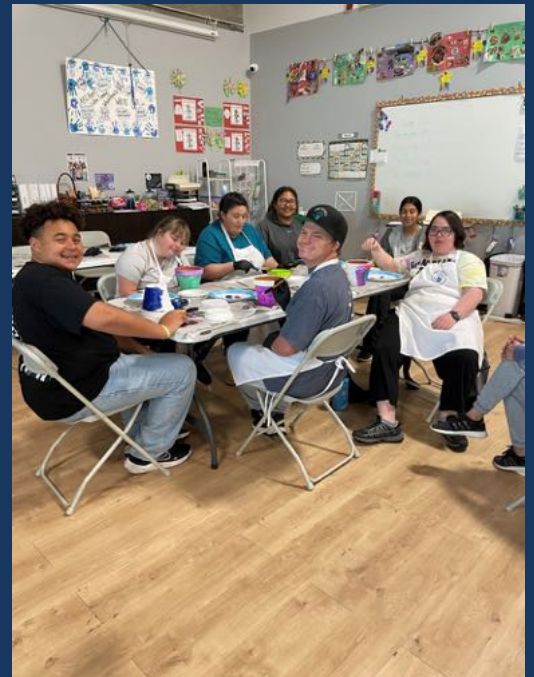

A creative idea came to the committee, specific to our centerpieces. Paula Fogel and Rebecca Spiegel were discussing different options, and a collaboration between CBS Religious School Students and clients of ABC Hopes has been developed. ABC Hopes founder Katie Moore will be honored with the coveted Shomer Tzedek (Guardian of Righteousness Award). The clients at ABC Hopes love to interact with others, and Marci Rouman, Education Director for CBS supported the idea to have our Religious students interact with them. Paula Fogel purchased and donated all the supplies. Pictures below will show various members of both organizations, as they begin the process of our centerpieces creations.

Over the prior months, we have highlighted each of our honorees. These amazing individuals truly exemplify our purpose and the meaning of each award—please enjoy reading about them. Remember this is our major, annual fundraiser. Your generous sponsorships, ticket purchases and donations for our auction are greatly appreciated!

This annual event takes numerous hours in preparation, including the task of mailing invitations. A unique process of working with various lists of invitees, a dedicated team comprised of Paula Fogel, Joan Jacobs and Kathy Stone, carefully processed this.

The CBS Legacy Award is awarded to individuals involved in the synagogue who exemplify the traditions of Jewish life and function as role models for future generations. These individuals have a high level of commitment to the CBS community. This year we will be honoring two CBS families with the Legacy Award. The first family is Joan Zak and Dennis Brooks, who demonstrate that “high level of commitment” to the CBS community in so many areas.

Joan has been an integral part in running Zoom services, developing power points to make the services “user friendly,” not to mention Joan’s development of CBS’ Adult Education Program. Dennis Brooks has played an integral part in photographing our yearly Legacy Luncheon with his wonderful expertise in taking the perfect group photo.

The second family is Paula and Mark Fogel. These CBS Honorees are supportive of all of CBS’ efforts across so many areas of synagogue life. Both are the first to step up to help anywhere they are needed. Paula, baker extraordinaire, has graced our meals and onegs with goodies from her kitchen and Mark is an integral part of the CBS Brotherhood, playing poker and involving himself in many volunteer efforts with CBS.

The Guardian of Righteousness Award (the Shomer Tzedek Award) is being awarded to Katie Moore, founder of ABC Hopes. Katie Moore has a passion for people. Her love for others is evident in everything she does. Katie’s younger brother, Christopher, was born with Down syndrome. She was concerned that because of his disability, Christopher might be treated differently than other people, so Katie created a special non-profit with the focus on individuals with disabilities. The non-profit originated in Orange County; however, in 2022, they relocated to their new facility in Corona. During the past several years, ABC Hopes, under Katie’s direction, has blossomed into a stable and integral part of the Corona community.

The Business Partner Award (Shatuf Tzedek Award) is being presented to Silver Dollar Pancake House owners Robert and Diana Hernandez. This business has been known as an icon in the Corona community. Labeled the oldest restaurant in the area, the

The Hernandez Family owners of Silver Dollar Pancake House

Hernandez family, with their daughter, Jennifer, constantly help others, from non-profits to charities and the homeless in the Corona community. The Silver Dollar Pancake House has been a long-time supporter of our Legacy Luncheon.

Thank you to our incredible committee, and the many members of our synagogue and business community that have donated items. You still have time to purchase tickets or sponsor a table so you and your family and friend can attend. If you cannot attend, we would be honored to receive a donation to this event which helps our synagogue.

For more information and answers to your questions about the Legacy Luncheon, please contact Legacy Luncheon Co-Chairs Renee Miller at (909) 228-5945 or Marci Rouman at (951) 733-3980.

EDUCATION Report

Marci Rouman, Education Director

The Purim play was beautifully performed by the students of CBS Religious School. We have several pictures in this publication depicting the enthusiasm and participation of all of our students. A huge thank you to Cantor Shapiro and Confirmation teachers Renée Tieszen and Arrianna Wolfe for their creativity in directing the students.

Our synagogue family celebrated a Bar Mitzvah the weekend of March 17-18. One of our long-time students, R.J. Spiegel, was called to the Torah as a Bar Mitzvah. It was a joy to watch this event. Mazel Tov to the entire Spiegel clan.

It is hard to believe that we are approaching the end of the Religious School year. The first end-of-the-school-year event is our annual Teacher Appreciation Service on Friday, May 5. Our students will lead the Friday evening Shabbat Service in honor of their teachers. The staff that teaches our students are certainly worthy of recognition. Please join us for this special evening on May 5 at 7 PM.

RECYCLING

Our young students are very concerned about the planet we are leaving for them. They are learning and experimenting on ways they can contribute. One very important step they have taken is RECYCLING.

Our Oneg room, the room between the sanctuary and the kitchen, has RECYCLING containers for empty plastic bottles (and caps), glass bottles and cans. Please do not throw these items in the trash. They are brought to a recycling center. The money goes to our school.

RITUAL Report

Jackie Williams, Ritual Chairperson

Thank you to the following wonderful congregants who led services during the month of March: the Religious School on March 10 and RJ Spiegel on March 24.

Our Bar Mitzvah RJ Spiegel led services on March 17 and 18.

In April it will be Joan Zak on April 14 and Zophia and Melissa Lindenbaum on April 28. Thank you all very much.

The synagogue seder planning is coming along great. With Marta and her team preparing a delicious meal and our great baker, Paula Fogel, making the Pesach desserts we will have a wonderful seder.

If you haven't already made reservations, it may be too late. There is only a limited amount of space in the synagogue and the food may have already been purchased. Call Jackie Williams TODAY if you want to attend: (714) 296-4079.

Trees Planted In The Holy Land

Over 100 years ago, Jewish National Fund-USA began to replenish the native vegetation of the Holy Land that had disappeared or been destroyed. The Bible tells us that God originally filled the land with olive, pine, cypress, tamarisk, acacia, and carob trees. These are the species that we plant today to renew and nurture the land.

Send a beautiful personalized tree certificate to your family, friends, or loved ones, to show your expression of sympathy or in recognition of a special occasion.

Planting trees in Israel is a beautiful way to show you care. Plant three trees for a ring of trees ($60), five trees for a circle ($95), and ten trees for an orchard ($180).

There's always a reason to plant trees:

Anniversary, Bar/Bat Mitzvah, Birthday, Congratulations, Father's Day, For Your Pet, Get Well, Graduation, In Honor Of,
In Memory Of, Mother's Day, New Baby, New Year/Rosh Hashanah, Retirement, Thank You, Wedding, etc.

CBS will have a custom certificate recognizing your donation and mail it to your home, relative or friend.

MAY BOOK SELECTION

Between the World Wars, the six Mitford sisters—each more beautiful, brilliant, and eccentric than the next—dominate the English political, literary, and social scenes. Though they've weathered scandals before, the family falls into disarray when Diana divorces her wealthy husband to marry a fascist leader and Unity follows her sister's lead all the way to Munich, inciting rumors that she's become Hitler's mistress.

As the Nazis rise in power, novelist Nancy Mitford grows suspicious of her sisters' constant visits to Germany and the high-ranking fascist company they keep. When she overhears alarming conversations and uncovers disquieting documents, Nancy must make excruciating choices as Great Britain goes to war with Germany.

Probing the torrid political climate in the lead-up to World War II and the ways that seemingly sensible people can be sucked into radical action, The Mitford Affair follows Nancy's valiant efforts to stop the Nazis from taking over Great Britain, and the complicated choices she must make between the personal and the political.
