THE CANTOR'S CORNER

BY CANTOR BRUCE SHAPIRO

The Jewish people and our life cycle have a Lunar calendar to guide us throughout the year.

On Sunday, May 5, in the evening there is a commemorative event that many of us have not celebrated on an annual basis. This year, it would be great to take note on that evening to light a "Yellow Candle" to remember the Holocaust and honor the heroes of the resistance of that period of time. This day is called Yom HaShoah V'Hagevurah. (Holocaust and Heroism Remembrance Day).

In addition to this day on our calendar, Yom HaZikaron (Remembrance Day, Sunday Evening, May 12) is a moment to remember Fallen Soldiers and Victims of Terrorism. For those who want to elevate this moment it is permissible to light a Yahrzeit Candle. Following this sad moment comes Yom Ha'Atzma'ut (Israeli Independence Day, Monday evening, May 13) a very happy and joyous time in Jewish History. This year we celebrate 76 years of independence! Listen to Israeli music and eat food that you find in Israel (especially Falafel with Hummus/Tahini/French Fries)!

Adon Olam, Master of the Universe, as we move towards the holiday of Shavuot (June), may we enjoy the life cycle events provided by You to help us live and love life to its fullest. Remember that on Lag B'Omer (33rd day of the counting of the Omer, May 25 eve-26 eve), all mourning practices are on hold. And the counting (of the Omer) continues! See you soon!
