THE CANTOR'S CORNER

BY CANTOR BRUCE SHAPIRO

"I spent 40 years there one week!"

Recently, I spent a week in Yosemite National Park with some runner friends of mine from college whom I have known for over 45 years! I was in the least best shape of the four and second of the youngest. I had been walking and working out for months in preparation for this big event.

What I was not prepared for physically, I was prepared for mentally. It was this same mental toughness that allowed me to endure the strenuous climbs to the top of places like Yosemite Falls, Nevada Lakes, Dog Lake, and Lembert Dome which were all 2500-8500 ft (more or less) in elevation which I climbed both physically and mentally. I huffed and puffed, wheezed, stopped, and shook my legs to make sure I could take the next step. Never, did I not think I would make it to the top, but never did I think that not getting there was an option!

So it goes for the New Year. I have been preparing for the High Holidays since this summer, looking for new ways to explore our journey together from our penitential prayers and inward look at ourselves starting in September, until the day of the start of the New Year at the beginning of this month.

I will continually look for ways to improve myself mentally, physically, and spiritually during the Year and I look forward to joining with you to reach our goals as we all journey together into the known and unknown.

Adon Olam, Master of the Universe, may we continue to grow and learn individually and as a community to make ourselves and the world better in the coming year. L'Shana Tova U'metukah... May you have a sweet and Happy New Year!

HELPING THE ANIMALS Xime's Bat Mitzvah Project

Hello, I am Xime and I am working on my Bat Mitzvah project! I've always liked animals ever since I can remember. In my eyes they can look so fuzzy, scaly, or even so ugly that they're cute. My family has owned four dogs in the past plus one hamster. One of our dogs actually came from the shelter. When we adopted him, he came with a blanket. Our current dog once cut her tail so badly that the vets used towels to clean all of the blood. Because of what happened, I went to Riverside County Animal Shelter in Jurupa Valley to find out how to help. They said that they desperately needed towels and blankets for the animals as they are used to either comfort the animals when getting adopted or cleaning up messes. I was inspired to collect donations of towels and blankets for my Bat Mitzvah Project.

Please help me help animals! Anyone can participate in my Project by donating towels and blankets so I can give them to the Riverside County Animal Shelter. The blankets can be queen size or smaller. Towels can be 40"x 70" or smaller. Various sizes are needed because the Riverside Animal Shelter provides assistance for animals from horses to hamsters.

The donated towels and blankets can be placed in boxes, which are located under the puppet show board at CBS. I will be collecting the towels and blankets through December 31, and accepting them personally at the Holiday Bazaar on Sunday, November 17.

Handmade blankets that will be available for purchase at the Holiday Bazaar. Monetary donations are also being accepted.

Thank you in advance to everyone who will be donating towels and blankets for my Bat Mitzvah Project. Watch the thermometer rise to reach my goal!

AROUND THE SYNAGOGUE

Thank you to the Confirmation Class for leading the Rosh Hashanah La'Behemot service, an age-old celebration for all G-d's creatures and the caregivers who support them. And thank you to Arrianna W. for the sounding of the shofar, announcing the coming of the High Holy Days.

During the month of September, CBS hosted an Active Shooter Training and STOP the BLEED trainings for our congregants.

These trainings were provided through grant funding that was secured by the Security & Safety Committee through California Governor's Office of Emergency Services (CalEOS). Many congregants participated in the trainings which provided valuable hands-on training on how to save a life and what to do when there is an active shooter situation.
